

Call to Holiness, to Sanctity

What is the purpose of human life? The world's philosophies, religions and beliefs provide many answers. However, the Catholic Church states the purpose of life is to become a saint, to be ultimately with God in Heaven: "Therefore all in the Church are called to holiness, according to St. Paul's saying, 'For this is the will of God, your sanctification.'" (Lumen Gentium from the 2nd Vatican Council)

What does all that mean? God made each of us in mind with a plan for our lives. This plan involves following God and doing what He calls us to do. The hard part is figuring out what God's plan is in our lives. To some it is easily revealed, to others it can be a challenge. But the things essential to figuring out God's Will for us are prayer and service. Once these are discerned we can fully live out Jesus' Mission of Evangelization. "Go out and make disciples of the World." (Matthew 28:16)

Our Parish Vision then at Our Lady of Loretto is to make everyone here a saint by providing opportunities for Prayer, Service and Evangelization. Our Lady of Loretto, pray for us,

Father Tony Vallecillo, Pastor
