A Conference For Everyone

Well-known Catholic convert and apologist, Dr. Scott Hahn, our Keynote Speaker, gives fresh eyes to our Catholic faith as seen through his journey into the Church as an ardent Protestant Bible scholar and former Presbyterian minister. Writer of several best-selling books, including The Lamb’s Supper, Reasons to Believe, & Rome Sweet Home, Our Journey to Catholicism (co-authored by his wife, Kimberly), Dr. Hahn teaches at Franciscan University of Steubenville.

Kimberly Hahn (Breakout Session), a popular speaker on the family and marriage, co-authored the best-selling book, Rome Sweet Home, Our Journey to Catholicism, and is the author of Life-giving Love: Embracing God’s Beautiful Design for Marriage. Kimberly Hahn is a mother, grandmother, veteran homeschool teacher, and support to college women and married couples.

Trish Short (Breakout Session) is the producer and singer of EWTN’s The Chaplet of Divine Mercy in Song, which has been airing globally since 2002. A successful model and actress, Trish shares the healing she found when she was given the Divine Mercy chaplet by a friend. Now a popular Catholic speaker, Trish shares her conviction and beautiful music along with her personal after-abortion testimony to the life-changing mercy and power of God.

Catholic Life Conference proudly introduces Hudson Byblow (Breakout Session), Canadian author, consultant, and speaker. Here is a testimony that speaks to one of the most pressing issues of our day—sexual identity and how it fits into Catholic identity. Featured on a recent Lighthouse CD from the Augustine Institute, Byblow’s story is entitled, In Pursuit of My Identity: Homosexuality, Transgenderism, and My Life.

Meet Popple! The comedic-acoustic-fun-loving musical team of Kyle and Dan, known as Popple, brings that happy combination of entertainment and ministry to lift our spirits and engage our hearts. For the children and the child in all of us.

When you register you will choose one Breakout Speaker or Popple’s performance for your second session.

The Church is the communion of saints, and it includes as members both angels and shepherds—cherubim and seraphim, and you, and me.  –Scott Hahn

There has never been a greater need for people to know of God’s mercy.  –Trish Short

Many people are burnt-out from a pursuit of fulfillment that has simply never given them the satisfaction they thought they would experience.  –Hudson Byblow

Because Jesus is the Eucharist, keeping Him in the center allows all the rich doctrines of the Church to emanate from Him, just as the beautiful gold rays stream forth from the Host in the monstrance.  –Kimberly Hahn

We are created for the sake of love. When we experience love in family life, it is heavenly, but it is still only an image of the greater glory we hope to behold in heaven.  –Scott Hahn

Prayer is not just something on our to-do list; it’s the breath of our soul.  –Kimberly Hahn

Pursuing the will of God, I realized, is not about what I want. It’s about what God desires of me and how I can best serve Him at this present point in my life.  –Hudson Byblow

I’ve known how much pain is created by walking away from the Lord, and how dreadful life is without Him.  –Trish Short

Only when we cease to rely on our own strength can we discover that God’s strength is always there for us.  –Scott Hahn

Dear friends in Christ,

I am pleased to support the Catholic Life Conference and I join you in welcoming Dr. Scott Hahn, as our keynote speaker, along with his wife, Kimberly Hahn, Hudson Byblow and Trish Short. All four speakers are celebrities in their own right—celebrities of the Catholic faith lived and taught. This is an exciting line-up!

A top-notch children’s program is planned. Our children will have their own feast that will help them fall in love with being Catholic.

Of course, that’s what this is about. We want to fall in love once again—fall in love with Jesus, fall in love with His Church, fall in love with this great pilgrimage that we are on together. Let us lift up our hearts and help each other know more deeply just why it is that we are Catholic!

Bishop of Springfield

The Catholic Life Conference was conceived under the direction of Bishop Rozanski to continue the good work of the Diocese of Springfield Catholic Men’s and Women’s Conferences. A newly established nonprofit has been working to bring men and women of our diocese together in one conference, while also including the next generation of Catholics—the whole family!
