Divine Mercy Sunday

Sunday, April 28th is Divine Mercy Sunday, the concluding celebration of the Easter Octave. It will also inaugurate our "Parochial Year of Healing". After consultation with many of our parishioners, hearing so many confessions and observing the many needs that are expressed on our parish Prayer Boards and in our parish Book of Intentions, it is clear to me that we are crying out to Heaven for healing of all sorts: physical, emotional, psychological, social/political and spiritual. The service for Year of Healing takes place from noon to 3:00p.m., April 28th, and will include Eucharistic Adoration, Sacred Scripture, Scripture reflection talks, the Rosary, confession, the Anointing of the Sick and more.
