“Divine mercy is God’s refusal to leave us in our fallen condition: Jesus enters the ‘locked doors’ of our hearts, banishing fear and sin and saying ‘Peace be with you.’ ‘He showed them his hands and his side’: Jesus shows us his wounds so that we will not be afraid to show him ours.”

Divine Mercy Sunday Afternoon of Prayer

This Sunday, April 28th, is Divine Mercy Sunday, the concluding celebration of the Easter Octave. It will also inaugurate our "Parochial Year of Healing". After consultation with many of our parishioners, hearing so many confessions and observing the many needs that are expressed on our parish Prayer Boards and in our parish Book of Intentions, it is clear to me that we are crying out to Heaven for healing of all sorts: physical, emotional, psychological, social/political and spiritual. The service for our Year of Healing takes place from noon to 3:00p.m., April 28th, and will include Eucharistic Adoration, Sacred Scripture, Scripture reflection talks, the Rosary, confession, the Anointing of the Sick and more.

Music Ministry

You are invited to join our Adult Choir and Instrumentalists (high school and above). Rehearsals take place on Tuesday evenings, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., in order to prepare music for upcoming Masses and liturgies. For more information please contact St. Peter Music Director Heather Fuller-Johnson at hfullerjohnson@dioceseofspokane.org.

Collection: Catholic Church in the United States

The Collection for the Catholic Church in the United States provides a way to build up the Church in rural and isolated regions of our country. This one collection takes the place of six that would otherwise be held at various times throughout the year. Although the Collection for the Catholic Church in the United States supports national ministries, the Diocese of Spokane receives meaningful grants from both Catholic Home Missions and Black and Native American Missions. These grants support different ministries at the local level. Please use the envelopes that you will receive in the mail the week of May 13th to make your contribution to the Collection for the Catholic Church in the United States.

Rosary Guild

The parish Rosary Guild normally meets on the third Wednesday of the month in the Madonna Room. We pray a specific decade of the Rosary and listen to a reflection on that mystery. Please join us when we meet next, Wednesday, June 19th at 3:30p.m. All are welcome to attend.
