VICTORY AND MORE!

Jesus won his victory on the cross: Despite torture, mockery, and malice, Jesus persevered in loving obedience to God and in loving mercy toward us. From mankind’s first awakening, we failed to answer God’s call to love, but at Jesus’ death we at last fulfill God’s purpose for us.

Jesus’ victory for us is awesome, but God goes further by raising Jesus from the dead and restoring him to his human body—glorified in divine life, beauty, and power. Follow Jesus on the way of suffering and death, and you also follow him on the way of glory and resurrection.

Jesus intends his followers to respond through life in his Church. His dying command was, “Love one another, as I have loved you.” And after his resurrection, he bound his disciples to the shared life of the Church and her mission to bring his good news to the ends of the Earth.

At SEAS Parish, our patroness, Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, delighted in the Eucharist as the foundation of her lively and resilient faith. She responded by heroically nurturing the educational mission of the Church. Following her example, we offer our best in worship, adapting in each new generation, supporting each other in charity, and equipping followers of Jesus for their shared life and mission.

Since Easter of last year, parents pledged 16 infants in baptism as followers of the Lord Jesus. Eleven children received 1st Holy Communion. In confirmation, 22 youth were sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit unto the mission of Christ and the service of the Church. Twelve couples pledged marriage as a public sign of Christ’s love for the Church. Through the sacrament of the anointing of the sick, about 300 Christians suffered bodily affliction prayerfully, becoming living crucifixes. The parish celebrated about 100 funerals, entrusting the dead to the care of the Lord until the day of resurrection.

Also over the past year, about 95 children progressed in their religious education, under the guidance of their parents and assisted by volunteer catechists. Our youth group continued meeting monthly, and our young-adult group twice monthly. Adult fellowship continued through Bible studies, faith-sharing groups, the Moms’ Group, and more.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society helped about 200 households monthly via the food pantry or other forms of assistance. The Ladies of Charity ministered to the homebound and other persons at risk of neglect. The Knights of Columbus advocated for the unborn and the handicapped. The Christian Mothers & Guild conducted numerous charitable and social undertakings. Parishioners reached out in several ways to addicts and their families.

SEAS Parish celebrated her 25th anniversary on November 1, 2017. All the above is just a sampling of 25 years’ efforts at prayer, worship, faith-sharing, education, and service. How is the Lord calling you?

SEAS Parish encourages donors to switch from offertory envelopes to electronic giving—a monthly debit to your checking or credit card account. It’s safer, cheaper, easier, more reliable, and friendlier to the environment. You can sign up at www.faithdirect.net using parish code PA591, or get a paper application from me. To make a one-time gift via smart phone, use the QR code at left.

CONFIRMATION SESSIONS FOR ADULTS

Several sessions are planned for Wednesday evenings in April. These will prepare adults to join the parish celebration of Confirmation with Bishop Zubik on May 22. Please call the Office to register or for more information: 412-276-1011.
HEARTS SPEAK TO HEARTS

THE MASS OF THE RESURRECTION

"Then they recounted what had happened on the road and how they had come to know Him in the breaking of bread." —Luke 24:35

On the afternoon of the day on which Jesus rose from the dead, the risen Lord gave us the pattern for Christian worship. We begin with the liturgy of the word. We walk about seven miles with Jesus as He interprets for us "every passage of Scripture which referred to Him" (Lk 24:27). This causes our hearts to burn and be purified (Lk 24:32). Then our eyes are opened to recognize the risen Christ in the breaking of the bread (Lk 24:31).

However, our worship is not over yet. Following the liturgy of the Eucharist, we get up immediately, return to the circumstances of our everyday lives, and recount what has happened to us and how we came to know Jesus "in the breaking of bread" (Lk 24:33, 35). We do our priestly duty of preaching the gospel of God so that those who believe our message "may be offered up as a pleasing sacrifice, consecrated by the Holy Spirit" (Rm 15:16).

Our major way of worshipping God is called "Mass," that is, "Sent." When we worship the Lord in Spirit and truth (Jn 4:24), we not only receive God’s word and Holy Communion; we also are sent forth to proclaim the good news. For a complete Mass in the pattern of the risen Jesus, we must go when we are sent and then offer up "as a pleasing sacrifice" those who accept the gospel we share (Rm 15:16). May we make our Mass true to its name.

Nihil obstat: Reverend Edward J. Gratsch, October 10, 1995
Imprimatur: †Most Reverend Carl K. Moeddel, Vicar General and Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, October 13, 1995

This writing is from One Bread, One Body, a publication of Presentation Ministries. One Bread, One Body contains daily teachings based on the Catholic Church’s readings for daily Mass. In keeping with the purpose of the publisher, Presentation Ministries, each issue of One Bread, One Body is sent to the Chancery for review. There it receives the Rescript (a new form of the Nihil obstat and Imprimatur) which is your assurance that the teachings are not contrary to official Church teaching.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

THE PROCESS

Begin with Inquiry: an informal gathering to share life stories; move to the Catechumenate: a more formal learning period of Catholic basics; then spiritually get ready to CELEBRATE the Sacraments.

This RCIA Formation Process is for:
* unbaptized persons thinking about becoming Catholic;
* Christians investigating the Catholic Faith traditions; or
* Catholic Christians for completing their Sacraments of Confirmation and First Communion.

If you’re thinking…now is the time to begin. Call the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish RCIA Office for information. Our process is ongoing, though we occasionally gather a new group of Inquirers. Come see; no immediate commitment; enjoy the company of others who are inquiring.

There is a seat around the table for you!

MYSTAGOGY PERIOD OF R.C.I.A.

The newly-baptized and those received into the Catholic Church continue to bask in the excitement of the great Feast of Easter as we are called to reflect on our own personal commitment to a Catholic Christian lifestyle. We have now entered Mystagogy, “breaking open the mysteries,” which continues for the next few weeks on Tuesday evenings, 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., in the Maximilian Kolbe Room. On April 3 we will reflect on the symbols of the Easter Vigil. Know that all in the parish are invited to join our newest Catholics for reflection and discussion.
May the risen Christ fill your heart with joy, bring you new hope, and bless you with peace.

Happy Easter!

Correy Lyn Julie Dandoy into full communion with the Roman Catholic Church.
Baptized on March 31, 2018 with Justin Patrick Dandoy as her Godparent.

Congratulations!
God’s blessings and our best wishes to the Dandoy Family!
Our first meeting of the year is the day after Easter, April 2. We meet at Peter’s Place at 1:00 p.m. Holidays can be rough when you have lost a loved one. Come share your thoughts with us. You could help or be helped! Please call Dorothy Montani: 412-279-5872.

ONLINE MEMBERSHIP

Men: Are You Ready to Accept the Challenge?

Our communities need strong Catholic men to answer the call to lead with faith, protect our families, serve others and defend our values. For over one hundred years, Knights of Columbus have done exactly that, standing up for the Church, serving the least among us, and strengthening our parishes and families.

Eligible Catholic men can now join the Knights of Columbus ON LINE in a simple, streamlined process. As a member, you join a worldwide community of nearly two million men, including over 61,000 here in Pennsylvania, who stand together. Men have the duty to lead, protect, serve, and defend. The world needs more committed, unified Catholic men to answer the call. Will you answer?

Visit kofc.org/joinus to learn more about the many benefits of membership in the Knights of Columbus.

CARNEGIE BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB

SEAS Day — 40 Days for Life! From the Shift Manager report: “What a wonderful day! We enjoyed the beauty of two families from St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Carnegie. Both families brought five children, all of them prayerful, pleasant, polite and patient. An added bonus is that we also had one more baby in utero and lovely Isabel was celebrating her 12th Birthday. We all sang “Happy Birthday” to Isabel, and then we prayed the rosary. No fidgeting, fussing, or fighting, and the children took turns leading the decades. We also prayed the Divine Mercy Chaplet before the families walked into the sunlight.”

ANNUAL EASTER FAMILY BLESSING
Today! Families may drop by at any time between 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. Come and meet Bishop David Zubik, Auxiliary Bishop William Waltersheid, and retired Auxiliary Bishop William Winter. Each bishop will receive families for a greeting and blessing. (Rumor has it that chocolate may be involved, too!) St. Paul Cathedral, 108 North Dithridge St. in Oakland.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS
On Sunday, April 22, we join with others around the world to pray for vocations. At SEAS, we will showcase our correspondence with priests and other religious who are, or were, members of our parish, along with cards and letters from our seminarians. Carol Dlugos spearheads this writing campaign between the children of our parish and these holy men and women. Be sure to take a few moments before or after Mass on April 22 to see this display!

MAY CROWNING
Monday, May 14, at 6:30 p.m. is our annual May Crowning! Join the Contemporary Choir and the children of the Parish to honor our dear Blessed Mother! Save the date!

MINI THON
Students from our parish who attend South Fayette High School are participating in a “Mini-Thon” on April 20. They will be joining more than 90,000 students in a powerful movement to conquer childhood cancer. Learn more at www.FourDiamonds.org or find them on Facebook: SF Mini-THON.

CHRIST OUR HOPE, IS RISEN!
On Saturday, April 14 at 7:00, the Schola Cantorum Franciscana, under the direction of our own Music Director, Nick Will, will perform a free concert of Easter music at SEAS. The concert, entitled Christ, Our Hope, is Risen! will feature J. S. Bach’s Easter cantata Christ lag in Todesbanden and other Renaissance and Baroque choral works for Eastertide. The Schola, which will be joined for the concert by the Academy Chamber Orchestra, is the elite choral ensemble of Franciscan University of Steubenville, and regularly performs in liturgy and in concert on the FUS campus and throughout the tri-state region. Please come and bring a friend!
