

Options for the Entrance Procession

You can choose which form you would like to use for your wedding liturgy. All three options are available regardless of if you are having a Mass or not. In each procession, before the “Cross, candles, clergy”, the bells will be rung, signaling the congregation to stand.

Form 1:

- Processional Cross, candles, clergy
- Bridal party as couples
- Parents (optional)
- Bride and groom together

Form 2:

- Processional Cross, candles, clergy
- Bridal party as couples
- Groom, either alone or with one or both parents
- Bride, with father or both parents

Form 3:

- Processional cross, candles, clergy
- Groom, alone, stops at top of pews and waits to greet bride and approach altar together
- Bridal party as couples
- Bride with father or both parents
- Bride meets groom and approach the altar together
