

FROM FR. JOHN KIM

When we receive communion, Jesus comes to each of us personally. I mean Jesus comes to each of us as if we are the only person in the world at that moment. A spiritual bond is made between us and him, and this leads us to a deeper intimacy with him than if he were physically present. It is the time to grow in intimacy and friendship with the Lord.

However, we must never forget that the Jesus we receive in the Eucharist is the same Jesus who gave his life for us. The words of the consecration remind us of this: "This is my body which will be given up for you [...]. This is my blood [...] which will be poured out for you." Therefore, holy communion should lead to a spirit of sacrifice in us. To receive this food is to be reminded that, like Christ, we too must be willing to give ourselves in the service of others. Let me illustrate this with the story of Blessed Teresa of Calcutta.

Mother Teresa had a rule that when a newcomer arrived to join her Order, the Missionaries of Charity, the very next day the newcomer had to go to the Home of the Dying. One day a girl came from outside India to join, so Mother Teresa said to her: "You saw with what love and care the priest touched Jesus in the Host during Mass. Now go to the Home for the Dying and do the same, because it is the same Jesus you will find there in the broken bodies of our poor."

Three hours later the newcomer came back and, with a big smile, said to her, "Mother, I have been touching the body of Christ for three hours." "How? What did you do?" Mother Teresa asked her. "When I arrived there," she replied, "they brought in a man who had fallen into a drain and been there for some time. He was covered with dirt and had several wounds. I washed him and cleaned his wounds. As I did so I knew I was touching the body of Christ."

To be able to make this kind of connection, we need the help of the Lord himself. It is above all in the Eucharist that he gives us this help. Mother Teresa put it like this:

In the Eucharist I receive the spiritual food which sustains me in all my labors.
Without it I could not get through one single day or hour of my life.

Welcome back, all UMHB students! Also if you are a new student at UMHB, we welcome you! I hope that Christ the King parish will be your second home while staying in Belton. Please visit our website, www.ctkbelton.org, and let us know your contact information. I am looking forward to seeing you!

Thank you for joining us at Christ the King Catholic Church. We are happy to have you with us today, and hope that you feel welcome. Our parish is a very busy community of faith. Are you new to the Catholic Church? Have you been away from the Church for some time? You are invited to worship with us. Contact our parish office if you would like to learn more about the Catholic faith, discuss plans for marriage or baptism, or schedule a chat with Fr. John. If you would like to become a member of our parish, you can register online, or pick up a form in the office.

We look forward to seeing you again soon!

ADULT

Adult Bible Study Classes

This fall Christ the King is offering two bible study opportunities. “ACTS - The Spread of the Kingdom” will be offered on Mondays from 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. in the Christus Center starting on September 14 and continuing through February 15, 2016.

The second opportunity, “Matthew - The King and His Kingdom” will be offered on Wednesdays from 9:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. in the Christus Center starting on September 9 and continuing through March 30, 2016.

These programs combine personal bible reading and study with small group faith sharing in an informal setting. The cost for each bible study is $30. Scholarships are available. If you would like to register, contact Kris-sie Lastovica at klastovica@ctkbelton.org or call the parish office. Registration forms are in the back of this bulletin.

That Man is You

A new year of “That Man is You” men’s group starts Wednesday, September 16 at 6:00 a.m. All men in the parish are invited to attend. This year’s program is called “The Spirit of Nazareth.”

This new program will be tailored to help men very practically live out their faith. It will help them form a plan for their spiritual lives on a daily, weekly, and monthly basis. Once the men form a spiritual plan of life during the fall semester, we switch gears in the spring to help them learn how to discern the voice of God in their lives. This is the most practical year ever developed!

Here’s the typical meeting schedule:

- 6:15am – Breakfast
- 6:45am – Presentation
- 7:15am – Small Group Discussions
- 7:45am – Conclusion

AROUND THE PARISH

Music Ministry Ice Cream Social - August 25

Pam Fette and the music ministry invites you to join them for their annual Music Ministry Ice Cream Social on Tuesday, August 25 at 7:00 p.m. in the Christus Center. Come and meet other singers and find out what our music ministry is all about. If you have questions, call Pam at 493-1477. We look forward to seeing you there!

Ethics and Integrity in Ministry Training

EIM training is required for all employees and volunteers who minister to youth or vulnerable adults in the Austin Diocese. Two upcoming classes are scheduled at Christ the King in August:

- The BASIC course is scheduled for Saturday, August 29th from 12:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall.
- The REFRESHER course is scheduled for Saturday, August 22nd from 1:30 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. in the Christus Center.

You must register in advance online at www.austindiocese.org. For more information, contact Teresa Hays at thays@ctkbelton.org or call her at the parish office.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Last fall we began a new catechesis program known as The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) for our five year old kindergarteners. CGS is a Montessori approach to sharing the Catholic faith with children. It nurtures the personal relationship between Jesus, Our Good Shepherd, and the child through encounters with salvation history, Sacred Scripture, and the Liturgy. This year we would like to open CGS for our three-year-olds on Friday mornings from 9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. We will begin Friday, September 18. Space is limited to 10 children, with priority given to those parents/guardians who can help us with a minimal contribution of their time. For more information, contact Robin Roach at 254-780-7618.

Women's Ministry

Women's Ministry membership dues are now due. Active member dues are $10, affiliate members are $5. Interested in finding out more about our ministry? Call Maria Ornelas at 817-682-0105, or email her at omariaathome@yahoo.com.

VBS A GREAT SUCCESS!

VBS was a great success due to the 53 volunteers that helped. We had 110 kids and reached the top of the mountain on Friday. We are already thinking of plans for next year and would like anyone interested in being a director or part of a leadership committee please contact Krissie Lastovica in the parish office at 254-939-0806. Thank you to the parents for your food donations, thank you to the kids for sharing in the fun, thank you to the volunteers for all your hard work, and most of all PRAISE GOD for showing us His mighty power!
