Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Next week we will have our Annual Appeal Commitment. No doubt most of you are familiar with how this goes.

What is most different about the Appeal now is its name. But the cause is still the same. Every year we are reminded how important the Appeal is for the Archdiocese, and how the funds are used for the programs and charities of the Archdiocese. In these times, it's important to add that none of the funds from the Appeal would be used to pay legal bills or settlements involving clergy sexual abuse.

What does the Appeal go toward? Catholic charities, evangelization and communication outreach, pro-life ministries, special ministries with minorities and for people with disabilities, college chaplaincies, and lay formation. The second greatest allocation is education. Our school alone received over $180,000 in assistance this year, as well as over $200,000 in reimbursements to cover door and roof repair.

But the largest allocation goes to vocation work. We have over 80 seminarians, and we run our own college seminary, St John Paul II. Simply put, so much of the future of our archdiocese depends on our priests, and the Archdiocese of Washington has had one of the best vocation and formation programs for some time. What a great thing to be able to support such a noble effort!

Lastly, simply as an investment, we always get back far more from the Archdiocese than we give. Last year we did not meet our mark. I hope that we can do better this year, as the Archdiocese has been even more generous in supporting us, as we continue to receive even more from them than before.

Supporting the Church is one of the most important ways we give thanks to God for all the blessings he bestows on us. Thank you for your generous support, for all you have done so far. And I thank you for your willingness to keep supporting our Archdiocese here so generously.

In Christ,
Fr Matt
