6th SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

"Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow. But I say to you, do not swear at all. Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes' and your 'No' mean 'No.'" —Mt. 5:33-34, 37

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCC.

With your participation, we are able to tangibly share hope throughout our local Church here in the Archdiocese of Washington.

Thank you for your sacrificial commitment to our vital work in the service of our Lord. Together, with hearts filled with hope, we can provide hope, comfort, and strength in our communities.

Archbishop +Wilton D. Gregory

As we go about our day-to-day lives in the communities we love and are happy to serve, we carefully navigate numerous obstacles in our path. Undeterred, as a people of faith committed to good, we persevere due to our belief that we can and should become a part of something greater than ourselves.

It is our understanding that with our helping hands, hope is extended to those around us in the most real way. This hope is critical to all kinds of life improvements. In this exchange, hope fills our heart while extending hope in the form of comfort to our neighbor. With our witness of hope and love for the people we encounter daily, we actively share the Love of Christ that sustains us.

As I have been traveling throughout our archdiocese since becoming your Archbishop last Spring, I am deeply touched by our faith communities in every parish and school. Your untiring dedication and works of light and compassion for our sisters and brothers is such a heartwarming response to our Christian call.

In 2020, I look forward to visiting you and your parish/school community as we go about our mission to reach many more people – young and old and in-between – who are served by our archdiocesan ministries and programs in the ongoing renewal of the Church and the world in Christ.

As we begin this new calendar year, the needs in our communities are greater than ever before. To help our growing ministries best respond and to keep our Catholic faith vibrantly alive, I ask you to consider a gift of financial support to our 2020 Annual Appeal.

Your Contribution at Work

$365 a year	Make a "dollar-a-day" pledge and every dollar goes directly to more than 60 local ministries and programs in need:
$149	Vocations and Clergy Formation
