4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” Jesus rebuked him and said, “Quiet! Come out of him!” - Mk 1:23-25

THE FEAST OF ST. AIDAN

By Deacon Jeff

On January 31, we will celebrate the patronal feast day of St. Aidan, for whom our parish is named. First, as with many saints, there is more than one “Saint Aidan”. “Our St. Aidan is more fully referred to as St. Aidan of Ferns. He should not be confused with Saint Aidan of Lindisfarne, who lived almost contemporaneously with our St. Aidan, but ministered in different area.

He is also known as Saint Máedóc and as Mogue (Irish: Mo Aodh Óg) in addition to Aidan (Irish: Áedan, Aiden; Welsh: Aeddan; Latin: Aidanus and Edan). The name meant “fire”, which is the source of the flame in our parish emblem. It was formerly often anglicized as Hugh.

St. Aidan originally brought Christianity to Eastern Ireland, and the Cathedral Church of the diocese in which the village of Wexford, Ireland is located is named for him. He founded over 30 churches and several monasteries, and his missionary spirit is a clarion call to all our parishioners.

A Bishop and missionary, he was born in County Cavan, Ireland circa 550. As a small boy he was held as a hostage by the High King of Ireland, probably to insure the loyalty of his family. The King was so impressed with Aidan that he told him he could stay or go. Aidan said he would go, but only if all other hostages were also released, whereupon the King let them all return home. Released, Aidan studied at Kilmuine, in Wales, a famed institute of learning conducted by St. David. In 580, he returned to Ireland, going to the coast of Wexford. He served the area in and around Ferns, Ireland, which includes county Wexford. Ferns was elevated at that time to the status of a diocese. And Aidan was appointed the first bishop of Ferns and eventually the Chief (now called “Arch”) Bishop of the region. In time he was called Mogue, “the beloved Aidan.” The episcopal seat is no longer in Ferns but in Enniscarthy, where a cathedral was dedicated to Aidan: however the Bishop still resides in Ferns, County Wexford.

He was noted for his benevolence, good humor and hospitality: on one occasion, seeing them exhausted by their journey, he permitted beef to be given to a visiting delegation of British bishops during Lent and permitted them to excuse themselves with the claim that the slaughtered cow was merely "milk and vegetables in condensed form". On another, he was pushed into a lake to see whether he would lose his temper; upon his meekly restoring himself, his tormenter confessed himself and apologized.

Many miracles are recorded of St. Aidan. Irish legend says that the "Bell of St. Mogue" was given to the infant on his birth by Saint Caillín. When a boat could not be found to take the infant Aidan across the lake to where Caillín waited to baptize him, Aidan was floated to shore on a slab of stone. The font at St Mogue's in Bawnboy, Ireland is said to be made from part of that miraculous stone. He was said to have broken a jug while fetching ale for his fellow monks; making the sign of the cross over the shards, however, it was repaired, and he continued on his errand. A yoke given to him by St. David's steward purposefully too small to fit the necks of his oxen miraculously accommodated them. When asked by Saint Fintan Munnu to heal monks suffering under an epidemic, Aidan was said to have indulged him: first by curing the monks and then by permitting the sickness to resume when Saint Fintan changed his mind, considering the sickness to be good for their souls.

St. Aidan died on January 31, 632 and his relics are claimed by St. Edan's Anglican Cathedral in Ferns.

2020 Parish Share Assessment: $ 285,076 Collected: $ 327,920

A special thanks to Dr. Kim, Chiropractor for advertising in our parish bulletin. Please patronize our sponsors or be sure to thank them when you have the opportunity. It is through their support that our weekly bulletin is made possible! May God bless all our benefactors!
Dear Friends of St. Aidan Parish and Blessed Francis Seelos Academy,

For the past 13 years, we enjoyed connecting with our Parish and School Families to celebrate our Annual Lenten Fish Fry. Last week Mike Cuddy and I had a Fish fry committee chair meeting. One of our main agenda topics was the decision made by the Pittsburgh Diocese for all Fish Fries to be TAKE-OUT ONLY. We all agree and support the decision. This will ensure that we can comply with the state regulation of social distancing. We plan to minimize or eliminate the time students and volunteers occupy the school at the same time. We also will need to limit menu items and adjust our processes to accommodate a safe preparation and distribution. I can assure you, we will still have the best fish dinner in the area.

We are offering 3 Protein items to choose from (Fried Fish, Baked fish and Shrimp), and they will each come with Mac & Cheese and Cole Slaw. To keep social distancing in the kitchen and serving line, we are not planning to serve desserts and soups, at least for now.

The To-Go service will be Curb side pickup only. No walk-in service or cash payment. The cost of the meal will be $10.00 and fish sandwich $10.50.

The attached sponsorship form on page 4, outlines the ways in which you can support our fish fry. If you wish to make a financial donation, advertise on a placemat, or sponsor a food item. Please complete the online form www.tinyurl.com/staidan-fishfry-2021 or contact Jama McCabe at fishfry@saintaidanparish.org by January 29. These ads sell out very quickly each year, so don’t hesitate, sign up now!

Your donation will be acknowledged by a letter for your charitable donation/tax records.

Signup Genius will be available soon for those who want to volunteer.

Thanks and may God keep you safe and healthy,

Consecration to St. Joseph

In this Year of St. Joseph, get to know our spiritual father more intimately and rely on his paternal care. Starting February 15, we will begin a new 33 day preparation to read through the book Consecration to St. Joseph by Fr. Donald Calloway, ending with a consecration service on the Feast of St. Joseph, March 19. Each week you will be sent an email with the reading for the week and a video of Fr. Will and Darcy Osby reflecting on the passages. Sign up now on our website under "News/Events" then "Consecration to St. Joseph"

LEARN

LECTIO: MARY: EPISODE 1: THE NEW EVE
This week as we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of Our Lord and Mary’s role in it, join Dr. Brant Pitre, Professor of Sacred Scripture at the Augustine Institute Graduate School, as he examines what the Old Testament reveals about the life and identity of Mary, the Mother of God.

To set up your free account visit formed.org/signup and select our parish.

Faith Formation Update

Grades K-6 this week are starting Unit 3 focusing on how we live what we believe. Lesson 11: How do we know God loves us? tells us about our human dignity and gift of free will. God gives us everything we need to grow in his love. The sacraments of Matrimony and Holy Orders strengthen individuals for particular vocations of service.

Baptism Information

If you wish to have your baby baptized, please go to our Website under "Faith Formation" and "Baptism Preparation" to view our guidelines and fill out the request form.

If this is your first child, you will need to attend a baptism preparation session. It is recommended that you attend before your baby is born. Upcoming dates are March 18 and May 20 at 6:30 p.m. via Zoom.

If it has been 4 years since you have attended a baptism preparation session, you will need to attend our Strengthening the Domestic Church virtual retreat to fulfill the preparation requirement. Upcoming date is February 18. Questions? Contact Darcy Osby: dosby@saintaidanparish.org.

Choir/Schola Start-Up Auditions

Saint Aidan Parish, in accordance with the COVID guidelines of the Bishop of Pittsburgh, will be holding auditions for singers who would like to be a part of a schola/choir. These scholas will be composed of between 6-8 people and will be socially distanced for the safety of all involved. We hope to form many small scholas and to start working on Lenten and Easter music for the upcoming liturgical seasons. If you are interested in auditioning please talk with Ian at Mass or email him at ibrown@saintaidanparish.org.
This year, Seelos Academy kicks off Catholic School’s Week with a prospective family Open House on Sunday, January 31 at the K-8 campus. The theme, Faith. Excellence. Service, will be incorporated into the many service projects students will participate in throughout the week. While this year looks a little different and many of our community-building activities have had to be cancelled or modified due to the pandemic, we look forward to celebrating the gift of Catholic education.
How is God telling you what kind of man He wants you to be in 2021?

The Catholic Men’s Fellowship of Pittsburgh endorsed a new virtual That Man Is You program and encourage men to simply try it out. It’s free and easy to join an online session.

Please mark your calendar to join us on Wednesdays, beginning next Wednesday January 20 at 7:00 p.m. It will run for 13 weeks and covers unfolding teachings. These sessions are virtual using Zoom, and all you need to do is click on a link—that’s it! We will also have small break out group discussions following a short video presentation to get the most out of the teaching, and is led by a trained group facilitator. This spring session will also prepare us for a great Lenten journey.

Sanctus

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

Amen

Amen, amen, amen.

Agnus Dei

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Communion Hymn

Refrain
Come to the banquet, come to the feast. Eat the Bread of life! Share in the singing, share in the joy.

Verses
1. Draw near and take the Body of the Lord, And drink with faith the Blood for you outpoured.
2. Our great Redeemer, God's eternal Son, Has by his cross and blood the victory won.
3. Let us approach with joyful hearts, And claim the promise of salvation born.
4. With heav'nly bread Christ makes the hungry Lord, whose living water fills the thirsting soul.

Canticle of the Turning

1. My soul cries out with a joyful shout that the God of my heart is great, And my spirit sings of the wondrous things that you bring to the ones who wait. You fixed your sight on your servant's plight, and my weakness you did not spurn, So from east to west shall my name be. Could the world be about to turn? REFRAIN: My heart shall sing of the day you bring. Let the fires of your justice burn. Wipe away all tears, for the dawn draws near, and the world is about the turn.
