HEALTH MINISTRY INFORMATION

STRESSED? TAKE A BREATH: Did you know practicing simple breathing exercises helps you use your lungs better by getting in touch with your natural breathing rhythm? Conscious breathing also helps lower your blood pressure, controls harmful stress hormones and improves your mood. Try one of these techniques to center your mind and release everyday tension. 1) Sit in a comfortable position. Take a deep breath in through your nose and hold for several seconds. Breath out through your mouth as you relax with each breath. Repeat three to 10 times. 2) From a standing position, bend forward from the waist with your knees slightly bent and let your arms dangle close to the floor. As you take a deep breath in, return to a standing position by rolling up slowly, lifting your head last. Exhale slowly as you return to the original position, bending forward from the waist. © 2018 inHealth Strategies, LLC / Avera.org/livenow

Respect Life: "When we encounter Christ, experience his love, and deepen our relationship with him, we become more aware of our own worth and that of others. His love for each person is cause for great joy, and growing understanding of this priceless treasure motivates us to share his love with others." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "How to Build a Culture of Life"

The Pastor's Corner:

Feast of the Baptism of the Lord: We relish the fact that in baptism, we receive the Holy Spirit. Today's readings reflect on the transforming power of the Spirit and challenge us to release that power for those who are most in need. The prophet, we call Second Isaiah, writing around 540 B.C., exhorts the exiled community in Babylon to return to the land of Israel. In this poem, he speaks of the servant (himself) and all believers who are willing to participate in this new and daring challenge. The challenge will be to receive God's spirit and thus respond to the task of reviving and transforming the brokenhearted. Luke, the author of Acts, shows in the second reading that salvation is for everyone. Jesus begins his ministry in Galilee after the baptism preached by John. The anointing is a prophetic one that empowers Jesus to exercise His office on behalf of others. For Luke, this anointing is specifically a call to labor for the disenfranchised. Luke describes the wonder of the people as they experience John's baptism and John tells of One far greater than he, One with a more powerful baptism.

All our parishes this weekend will be putting away the Christmas trees, crèches, decorations and getting the church environment ready for ordinary time after all the weekend Masses; extra help is always appreciated as many hands gets everything done quickly and it is also a good time for fellowship with one another.
