The Pastor's Corner:

In our scripture readings this weekend, Sirach and Luke both remind us of the great power, either for good or for harm, contained in our words and actions. The verses from Sirach illustrate dramatically the waste shaken out of the threshed grain. Our words and actions are shaken out from an inner spirit and clearly reveal our intention. What we say and do are windows for others to our soul. The passage from Luke teaches the dangers involved in judging others. There is an exaggeration contained in the "speck and log" illustration. Nevertheless, this powerful image remains with all who read the verses and reminds us again that self-improvement is a higher priority than observing and criticizing the weaknesses and failings of our neighbors.

Welcome to Fr. John Fischer of the ministry of Cross Catholic Outreach. I appreciate him coming to our parish cluster this weekend, so that I can have some time with my family in Scottsdale and vacation time.

As we begin the Holy Season of Lent this Week with our Ash Wednesday Masses, please take the pick up our Rice Bowl calendar and Lenten calendar, as both have daily scripture readings and reflections to guide us through these 40 days of Lent. Feel free to also take the Lenten devotion booklets that are in the entrances of our Churches.

~ Father Colletti

Strive to Serve

*Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve You as You deserve;
to give and not count the cost;
to fight and not to heed the wounds;
to toil and not to seek for rest;
to labor and not to ask for reward.*

~Prayer of Saint Ignatius of Loyola

From Lent with Saint Teresa of Calcutta*

*If we wish to serve God
and love our neighbor well,
we must manifest our joy
in the service we render to Him and them. Let us open wide our hearts.
It is joy which invites us. Press forward and fear nothing.*

~St. Katharine Drexel – November 26, 1858 ~ March 3, 1955
