The Pastor's Corner:

Today's readings suggest how our faith response can counteract our fear and hesitancy to follow Christ wholeheartedly. Luke, the author of the Acts of the Apostles, provides a summary of the Christian faith. Luke's portrait is idyllic, yet it clearly shows a faith community growing in the face of formidable obstacles. Our gospel passage also focuses on the very real human experience of fear. The disciples seek the security of secret rooms and locked doors. Only the presence of Jesus is able to calm their anxieties and enable Thomas to profess: "My Lord and my God" (John 20:28). We are all strengthened by his proclamation! All of us are at least distant relatives of Thomas; we are victims of fear. The doubting Thomas within us must be touched. We are asked to respond to the wounds within ourselves and others. Even in our weakness, we are urged to breathe forth the Spirit, so that the wounds may be healed and our fears overcome. Faith will free us, and we can respond as Thomas the Apostle, "My Lord and My God."

Congratulations to Shari Joens, Dana Wolf, and Jill Wolf in being received into full Communion in the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil!
