The Pastor's Corner:

In our Old Testament reading, Deuteronomy talks today about the people of Israel who have suffered a curse, rather than blessing because of their violations of the covenant. The author; however, is unequivocal in reminding the wayward that God's capacity for forgiveness cannot be exhausted. Yahweh's arms are outstretched to those seeking forgiveness; God requires only the resolution to try again.

In Luke's gospel excerpt this weekend, Luke as opposed to Matthew and Mark, has the lawyer speak the great law of love for God and neighbor in the well-known story of the Good Samaritan. The lawyer asks: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29). The evangelist wants to teach us that all who show mercy are able to belong to God's family. The parable illustrates this teaching. The Samaritan becomes the unlikely hero. As a non-Jew he is an outcast or a "non-neighbor," yet he alone opts for the higher law of compassion. He is a hero because he is a genuine neighbor.

~ Father Colletti

Angelus

V. The angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived by the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done unto me according to Thy Word.

Hail Mary ...

V. And the Word was made flesh.

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary ...

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we,
to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son,
was made known by the message of an angel,
may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord.
