OF INTEREST TO ALL

We would like to thank everyone for all the support that has been given to us during Molly's journey. The benefit on Sunday was amazing! It was so overwhelming to see everyone show their love and support. We want to thank the pastoral council for organizing it through the goodness of their hearts. We would also like to thank all those who volunteered, donated to the auction, and donated to the meal. Thank you to all those who have been there for us emotionally and financially. Being able to focus on Molly and not have to stress about the financial aspect of her journey is such a relief. Most importantly thank you all for your prayers. Molly has overcome so much and we believe it is greatly due to your prayers. We love being in such a faith driven community that helps when needed. We ask you to continue to pray for Molly and our family as we continue down her transplant route. We also ask you to pray for Molly's future donor and family as they need just as many prayers as we do. ~Thank you all so much! Mike, Melissa, Mari, and Molly

A Prayer for Peace of Mind

Fortify me with the grace of Your Holy Spirit and give Your peace to my soul that I may be free from all needless anxiety, solicitude and worry.

Help me to desire always that which is pleasing and acceptable to You so that Your Will may be my will.

St. Francis Xavier Cabrini (1850-1917)

The author of this Sunday's Genesis account is called the "Yahwist" because of the author's practice of referring to God as Yahweh. Abraham and Sarah welcome the Lord as guest who confirms God's promise of a son despite the couple's advancing years. Abraham is host, bringing water for the washing of feet and providing the shade of a tree for rest. The meal is a banquet, humorously described as "a little bread": a bushel of flour, curds, milk, and a choice calf! Sarah remains in the tent; society's customs forbid her from mingling with the male guests. She does the cooking, and nine months later the promise is fulfilled in the birth of Isaac.

Martha, in this gospel account, is another Sarah -- found in the kitchen. Mary is a contrast to both in that Jesus welcomes her as a disciple, indicated by her presence at the Lord's feet and her attentiveness to his message. Women did not receive instruction in the Jewish Torah in this society, and so the portrayal of a female disciple is nothing less than shocking. These readings challenge us to discard stereotypes. God's power overcomes the sterility of old age. Jesus' power transcends role models. What tasks need to be fulfilled to spread the Good News? How can women and men of all ages best use their God-given talents to benefit the community?

~ Father Colletti
