UNBOUND
deliverance. freedom. belonging.

UNBOUND: FREEDOM IN CHRIST CONFERENCE!

Unbound: Freedom in Christ conference with Neal Lozano: Sept 27-28, St John Vianney Church in Fairmont, MN. Do you feel spiritually stuck? Everyone is fighting an invisible battle against negative thoughts, secret sins, destructive habits, and lack of forgiveness. Unbound is a prayer ministry that releases the power of Jesus Christ into wounded hearts, helping people live out the freedom they have been given through Christ. This powerful conference of music, worship, sacrament, talks, and prayer is sponsored by the Office of Missionary Discipleship in the diocese, and all are welcome and encouraged to come. More about Unbound at www.heartoftheFather.com . Register before August 8 for an early bird discount: www.dowr.org/unbound.html

Respect Life: "O God, you are faithful, and you never abandon those who hope in you. I know that my redemption from sin and death has been purchased at the cost of your Son's blood. In return for this priceless gift, I resolve today to renew my trust in your unfailing mercy." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "Trust in God's Mercy" Prayer

The Pastor's Corner:

Our readings today bring home the familial atmosphere possible in prayer. We are invited to call God by name and to enter a relationship where every need is embraced. The Genesis author gives us a picture of partnership. Yahweh respects Abraham as a partner in the covenant relationship. God doesn't hide God's intentions; God explains the impending destruction to Abraham. God communicates interest, concern, and a boundless openness to listening. Abraham responds like the shopkeeper skilled at negotiation. Shrewdly Abraham asks the Lord, "Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked?" Pocketing the Lord's agreement to spare the city for the sake of the innocent, Abraham whittles down their number from fifty to ten. Abraham is family; God sees his maneuvering and respects his motives. Luke believes in the love of human fathers for their children. He reasons from this that God must be infinitely solicitous, never to be outdone in kindness and mercy. We see that in the Lord's prayer that Jesus gives the disciples. Naturally the disciples experience God as Father because they sense this Father and Son relationship in Jesus' prayer to and love for God in heaven. The parable of the unexpected guest teaches that we reach out to God as friend and this bond never fails, especially for those who are persistent!

I personally want to thank David Kruse as he concludes his Pastoral Internship with us and as we have his farewell gathering this Sunday. It was a gift for me to take part in his seminary formation these past 15 months and to have him in ministry in our parishes and at the rectory. I, and our parish family, promise our prayerful support as you move back to Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit for your final two years of seminary formation. Remember, you are always welcome back at our St. Adrian parish cluster and at our parish rectory when you are in the area.

~ Father Colletti

*Take, O Lord, and receive my entire liberty, my memory, my understanding and my whole will.
All that I am and all that I possess
You have given me. I surrender it all to You to be disposed of according to Your will.
Give me only Your love and Your grace;
with these I will be rich enough,
and will desire nothing more.*

~St. Ignatius of Loyola, 1491-1556

Feast Day ~ July 31

Our Father

Our Father,
who art in Heaven,
hallowed by Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done
on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our
daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

Amén.
