FREEDOM IN CHRIST CONFERENCE!

Unbound: Freedom in Christ conference with Neal Lozano: Sept 27-28, St John

Vianney Church in Fairmont, MN. Do you feel spiritually stuck? Everyone is fighting an invisible battle against negative thoughts, secret sins, destructive habits, and lack of forgiveness. Unbound is a prayer ministry that releases the power of Jesus Christ into wounded hearts, helping people live out the freedom they have been given through Christ. This powerful conference of music, worship, sacrament, talks, and prayer is sponsored by the Office of Missionary Discipleship in the diocese. All are welcome and encouraged to come. For details-Unbound at www.heartoftheFather.com.

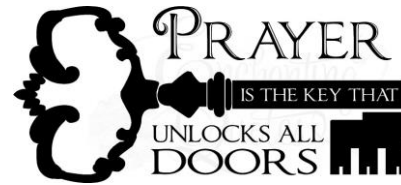

The Pastor's Corner:

Today's scripture readings show both the building up and the tearing down of the prophetic mission. The prophet is called to comfort the afflicted and to afflict the comfortable. This task involves energizing with hope those who have lost the capacity to hope, challenging those who have, unwittingly or not, contributed to a despair that seems irreversible to the downtrodden. The political conspiracy to convict Jeremiah the prophet is described in the first reading. Jeremiah attacks the unfaithful King Zedekiah and his entourage. Afflicting the comfortable brings a charge of treason against Jeremiah and finds him thrown in the bottom of a muddy cistern. Jesus' prophetic call from His Heavenly Father is to "bring good news to the poor ... to proclaim release to the captives ..." (Luke 4:18). Jesus demands a decision either for or against his message. "I came to bring fire to the earth and how I wish it were already kindled" (Luke 12:49).

Jesus, like Jeremiah, will experience the prophet's fate. The baptism referred to is actually Christ's passion and death. He longs for this event to take place (Luke 12:50). Family members are divided against one another; the harsh reality is that the Church's mission of conversion will not be a total success.

The modern prophet proclaims that despair does not have the final say. The suffering is drawn up from the muddy cistern; their capacity to dream, to laugh, and to sing is restored.
