The Pastor's Corner:

The Scriptures for this weekend remind us that God is an unconditional God and universal in love. The challenge is to embrace as God embraces. Isaiah proclaims God's all-inclusive vision: "I am coming to gather all nations and tongues" (Isaiah 66:18). Not only does God welcome the Gentiles (non-Jews) but actually invites them to be missionaries on God's behalf, "... and they shall declare my glory among the nations". The Gentiles are even entitled to be priests and Levites.

Luke, in both his gospel and Acts of the Apostles, insists that Jesus' message encompasses Jews and Gentiles alike. Jesus explains that association with Him is not enough. The narrow door makes the point that salvation comes through more than talk; committed action is required. The closing lines of today's gospel again emphasize universalism: "People will come from east and west, from north and south, and will eat in the kingdom of God". Watchfulness, not election, is the basis for entrance into the kingdom. Access to God is unrestricted. The Lord yearns to be shared with all people. Our lifestyle testifies to the dignity and worth of each individual as the handiwork of the Creator.

~ Father Colletti

*"Thou hast made us for Thyself, and our heart is restless
until it finds its rest in Thee."*

St. Augustine (354-430) ~ Memorial: August 28th

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,

our life, our sweetness, and our hope.

To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.

To thee do we send up our sighs mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.

Turn then, most gracious advocate,

thine eyes of mercy toward us,

and after this our exile

show us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Stay with me, Lord, because I am weak and I need Your strength, that I may not fall so often.

Stay with me, Lord, for You are my life, and without You, I am without meaning and hope.

Stay with me, Lord, for You are my light, and without You, I am in darkness.

Stay with me, Lord, to show me Your will.

Stay with me, Lord, so that I can hear Your voice and follow You.

Stay with me, Lord, for I desire to love You ever more, and to be always in Your company.

Stay with me, Lord, if You wish me to be always faithful to You.

Stay with me, Lord, for as poor as my soul is, I wish it to be a place of consolation for You, a dwelling of Your love.

Stay with me, Jesus, for it is getting late; the days are coming to a close and life is passing. Death, judgement and eternity are drawing near. It is necessary to renew my strength, so that I will not stop along the way, for that I need You. It is getting late and death approaches. I fear the darkness, the temptations, the dryness, the cross, the sorrows. O how I need you, my Jesus, in this night of exile!

Stay with me, Jesus, because in the darkness of life, with all its dangers, I need You.

Help me to recognize You as Your disciples did at the Breaking of the Bread, so that the Eucharist Communion be the light which disperses darkness, the power which sustains me, the unique joy of my heart.

Stay with me, Lord, because at the hour of my death I want to be one with You, and if not by Communion, at least by Your grace and love.

Stay with me, Jesus, I do not ask for divine consolations because I do not deserve them, but I only ask for the gift of Your Presence. Oh yes! I ask this of You.

Stay with me, Lord, for I seek You alone, Your Love, Your Grace, Your Will, Your Heart, Your Spirit, because I love You and I ask for no other reward but to love You more and more, with a strong active love.

Grant that I may love You with all my heart while on earth, so that I can continue to love you perfectly throughout all eternity, dear Jesus. ~Prayer After Holy Communion by Saint Padre Pio
