Baby Bottle Campaign Offers Real Hope and Help to Women and Children: With economic concerns cited as a significant reason why women in Minnesota are having abortions, it seems all the more vital for the Diocese of Winona-Rochester and Catholic Charities to be collecting spare change. The 13th annual Baby Bottle Campaign is underway in churches and schools across the Diocese where parishioners and students take home a baby bottle and fill it with their spare change over the next month. It may seem that one bottle of change won't make an impact, but all these bottles together will help a number of women choose adoption or parenting rather than abortion for their unborn child and give babies the best start possible. The Baby Bottle Campaign offers a two-fold purpose. First, all of the money collected will be used to assist women who are pregnant and need financial help. Financial grants may be given for rent, utilities, and other needs. Catholic Charities' Pregnancy, Parenting, and Adoption Social Workers also offer help and hope to those who feel in crisis with their pregnancy. Secondly, the campaign will raise awareness in the parishes concerning the day-to-day efforts on behalf of women in which Catholic Charities' Pregnancy, Parenting, and Adoption program has been engaged in for over seventy-five years! The Baby Bottle Campaign is a perfect project for providing individuals and families a chance to offer a real response to women choosing life over abortion. "Receiving this grant will help us maintain stability & get our lives more on track to help us provide for baby." – Cassie Our campaign will end on Sunday, November 3rd. Please return all bottles to church by that date. Thank you!

Respect Life: “An unexpected pregnancy can be a difficult and frightening time, and it's important that your friend knows you are thinking of her and supporting her... Your support might be the only support she receives. Even if we never know how, the smallest things we do can change someone's life. You can make a difference in her life. Will you?” USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, “10 Ways to Support Her When She's Unexpectedly Expecting” www.respectlife.org/support-her

The Pastor’s Corner:

The mandate of today's scripture reading is concern for the poor and distressed of our world. Wealth is not evil, and we should not forget those who are well off; but the poor hold a special place in the Christian community. The Sirach passage was written at the beginning of the second century B.C. God is depicted as a just judge who considers each case on its own merits and never stoops to bribery. At the same time, the judge has a special concern for the down-and-out. The author (Ben Sira) insists that the Jewish nation must imitate this divine compassion for those without a special advocate.

Luke's parable employs a Pharisee and a tax collector. The Pharisee represents faithful Jewish observers of the Mosaic law. The tax collector, because of abuses in the manner of gathering taxes, represents sinners. The Pharisee stands in front, proclaiming his righteousness and demeaning all others. The tax collector acknowledges his sin and hence leaves the Temple at peace with God. Luke concludes with Jesus' statement of role reversal: The exalted will be humbled and the humble exalted.
