*Many more began to believe in Him because of His word,
and they said to the woman,
“We no longer believe because of your word;
for we have heard for ourselves,
and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world.”

The Pastor's Corner:

In today's gospel, the Samaritan woman came to Jacob's well at about noon after all the other villagers had come to use the well (see John 4:6). She was possibly trying to avoid meeting people who despised her. She may have even despised herself and wanted in her self-hatred not to be seen in public. However, Jesus was already at the well — waiting all by Himself to give amazing revelations to this most unlikely candidate. He spoke to her of God's gift of living water (Jn 4:10), becoming in her "a fountain ... leaping up to provide eternal life" (John 4:14). After beginning to reveal to her the Holy Spirit and Baptism, Jesus told her that He is the Messiah (John 4:26). The Samaritan woman then became an effective missionary, as she led many of her fellow villagers to faith in Jesus (John 4:39). Jesus, in His mercy, chose this despised woman to receive some of the greatest revelations ever given. Jesus made her His witness and graced her missionary work with power. God "chose the world's lowborn and despised, those who count for nothing" (1 Corinthians 1:28). Jesus is "rich in mercy" and extends the same mercy to us as to the Samaritan woman.

Strive to Serve

*Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve You as You deserve;
to give and not count the cost;
to fight and not to heed the wounds;
to toil and not to seek for rest;
to labor and not to ask for reward.*

~Prayer of Saint Ignatius of Loyola
