Every Tuesday in June, Catholic United will livestream a concert by a Catholic musician/band that is free for all to view. Mary Visits Elizabeth ~ Feast of the Visitation
From a Commentary on the Gospel of St. Luke by St. Ambrose, Bishop When the angel revealed his message to the Virgin Mary, he gave her a sign to win her trust. He told her of the motherhood of an old and barren woman to show that God is able to do all that He wills.*

~ Feast of the Visitation – May 31st

The Pastor's Corner:

Christians are temples of the Holy Spirit. The temple is not a hiding place but a manifestation. Today's readings define Christ's followers as community members empowered to release the Spirit for the common good. Luke, the author of Acts, understands Pentecost as the start of the Church's universal mission. The Spirit is the driving force. Pentecost is linked with the Tower of Babel story in Genesis 11:7-9; the outcome at Pentecost, however, is vastly different -- unity rather than division. For John, Pentecost occurs on Easter Sunday. On that occasion the glorified Jesus, who has already ascended to God, conveys the Spirit to the disciples. The word "peace" suggests God's presence. By showing the disciples his wounds, the exalted Lord links the crucifixion and the Resurrection. The sharing of the Spirit is thereby grounded in a life of service. Pentecost was never intended to be an isolated experience in the early history of the Christian community. By its very nature, the reception of the Spirit is dynamic, not static. Today's biblical authors challenge us to confront the divisions that continue to exist in our family, our government, and our Church. As temples of the Spirit we must not keep the Spirit's gifts of healing to ourselves. To receive the Spirit is to share the Spirit.

~ Father Colletti

Prayer by St. Augustine

*Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my thoughts may all be holy;
Act in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my work, too, may be holy;
Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit,
That I love but what is holy;
Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit,
To defend all that is holy;
Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit,
That I always may be holy. Amen.*

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels & Mother of the Americas

*We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.
Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation
and world, and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.
For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.
In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient & kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts. We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.
Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.*

The Magnificat

*My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior
for He has looked with favor on His lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed:
the Almighty has done great things for me,
and holy is His Name.
He has mercy on those who fear Him in every generation.
He has shown the strength of His arm,
He has scattered the proud in their conceit.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones,
and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich He has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of His servant Israel
for He remembered his promise of mercy,
the promise He made to our fathers,
to Abraham and his children forever.*

~Luke 1:46-55
