My motivation to lead the RCIA program was our Lord Jesus Christ, His Love, sacrifice and everything he has done for me, my family and everybody. I see the need to bring our faith and testimony of life to those who live in the world without faith, especially in our Latino communities. I got my faith through my parents, and it increased through my life experience. I know that I still have a lot to learn about it, but I think I'm on the right path, and I feel very happy to be able to share my little knowledge that I have about God and His Church with others. My goals are to keep teaching the RCIA program, to bring more and more people to our Lord Jesus Christ, and to prepare more people to teach and spread the RCIA program to all Churches. ~Alma Gomez www.catholicismn.org/catholic-ministries-2020

The Pastor's Corner:

We continue our 1st Communion Masses this weekend in our parishes as our young people had to wait for this gift of the Eucharist, since we did not have public Masses in April and May. Today's Gospel is the conclusion of the instructions and consolations that we have heard Jesus offering to his disciples during the past few weeks. In this passage, Jesus summarizes both the costs of discipleship and its rewards. The conditions of discipleship outlined in Matthew's Gospel may appear harsh. Yet they underline for us a truth—choosing anything with one's whole heart has consequences. Choosing life with Christ means that every relationship we have must be understood from a new perspective. For many in Matthew's community, this choice brought division to their family.

Matthew also outlines the reward of hospitality offered to Jesus' followers. In today's Gospel, Jesus explains the difficulties of discipleship, yet reveals that those who welcome the disciples have also welcomed him. Today's Gospel also highlights for us the importance of hospitality in the Christian life. To welcome another in Jesus' name is to extend hospitality to Jesus himself. We have many opportunities in our daily life to reach out to others, to be a welcoming presence and a sign of God's love.

Feast of SS. Peter and Paul ~ June 29

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels & Mother of the Americas

*We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.
Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation
and world, and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.
For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.
In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient & kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts. We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.
Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.*

*Be Strong
and let your heart
take courage
Psalm 31:24*
