We incorporate faith into the subjects that we teach — how does faith connect to social studies? How does it connect to science? What are those common themes we can pull together so that the kids can know that faith isn't just something we do when we're in the Church or when we take a moment to pray: it's everything we do? Catholic education changes who the kids are, how they look at the world, and how they treat other people. Anything one can do to help build the Kingdom of God is appreciated, welcomed, and goes further than you can ever imagine. ~ Chris Smith, Catholic Schools www.catholicismn.org/catholic-ministries-2020

Sisters of St. Francis of Rochester, MN in Bogota, Colombia: This year's opportunity for us to participate in global mission is by supporting the Rochester Sisters and their Colegio Anexo San Francisco de Asis (CASFA), a school for low-income children and youth in the outskirts of Bogota, Colombia. Former parish staff, Sister Mary Eliot Crowley (Adrian) and Sister Anne Walch (Wilmont) would have loved to actually BE WITH us this year to share about this marvelous project in great need of our support. Nevertheless, they are counting on our generous response in helping with this unique educational venture which is making a significant difference toward a better future for hundreds of children, their families, and their local communities. Learn more via CASFA's webpage at www.casfa.edu.co. Please consider making a meaningful contribution to this cause through your participation in our parish's Mission Cooperative second collection. THANK YOU for your part in this concrete way of offering hope and solidarity!

The Pastor's Corner:

In this Sunday's scripture readings, concluding his message of consolation to the despairing exiles, Isaiah takes up the theme of God's Word Second again. To demonstrate the fidelity of God, the author describes God as a farmer, the giver of fertility. God sends the rain and the snow from the heavens. Thereafter they reach back to the heavens in the form of bushes, trees, and crops. This God is faithful even in the face of Israel's infidelity.

Psalm 65 presents three images of the God of Israel. God is the God of Zion, the one who resides in the Jerusalem Temple. God is the Lord of the universe and history. Finally, God is the Farmer. The valleys decked with grain eloquently testify to the concern of this farmer for the day to day needs of the people.

The parable in today's gospel suggests a period in the ministry of Jesus when he meets with lack of response. The impasse raises the question of loss and gain in the kingdom. Jesus adopts the stance of the farmer: In sowing there will be failure and loss. Jesus offers three stages of loss: immediate (the footpath), the gradual (the rocky ground), and ultimate (the thorns). He offers three stages of growth: a hundred-, sixty-, or thirty-fold. Jesus perseveres in accomplishing his mission.

God is faithful, challenging our fidelity. God does not hesitate to become involved, motivating our willingness to invest. God perseveres even in the face of significant loss. May we continue to persevere in faith also. ~ Father Colletti

Morning Offering

O Jesus,
through the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
I offer You my prayers, works,
joys and sufferings of this day
for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart,
in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass
throughout the world, in reparation for my sins,
for the intentions of all my relatives and friends,
and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Amen.

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels & Mother of the Americas

We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation
and world, and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.
For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.

Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.
In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient & kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts. We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.
Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.

You're Planted.

For I know the plans
I have for you," declares
the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.
