It is great to know that the things we teach our children at home and that they see in church will be reinforced by their teachers at school. Everywhere they go, they are seeing the teachings of Christ. Even the environment that the teachers are in is positive and respectful. You can see these people are carrying out Christ's teaching by their kindness and love they share for the students and one another, as well as the respect of the administration. They embrace Catholic teachings and bring that to our children so wonderfully. ~ Santi & Carolyn Ocariz www.catholicismn.org/catholic-ministries-2020

The Pastor's Corner:

Today's first reading, responsorial psalm, and gospel consider the theme of leniency. The image is of a God who chooses to demonstrate control by means of kindness and patience. This is a God who governs not by power or force, but by compassion. Writing for Alexandrian Jews in the first century B.C., the author of the Book of Wisdom emphasizes God's special care of Israel during the Exodus. He also takes up the problem of the just and the unjust. God's power does not result in blind rage but in clemency. In this way God manages a balance between justice and mercy. We are to imitate this balance by showing strength through the exercise of leniency.

The gospel parable defines the kingdom as one that embraces both wheat and weeds, both good and evil. The owner confronts two problems: (1) how to save the wheat and (2) how to outwit the enemy. He resolves the first by permitting the wheat and weeds to grow together until harvest. He resolves the second by using the weeds as fuel. The owner realizes that violence (killing the weeds) will only endanger the common good. In the kingdom, the common good demands patience and forgiveness. Swift action plus compassion makes the owner a symbol of the kingdom: strength through leniency. Power is given to help others

Our Lady of Good Counsel: Kelsey Fuerstenberg, Samantha Moulton and Kole Spartz

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels & Mother of the Americas

*We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.
Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation
and world, and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.
For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.
In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient & kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts. We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.
Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.*
