Socks + October = Socktober: What is socktober? In October 2011, creator Brad Montague realized there was a large homeless population in his hometown and he wanted to do something about it. He became aware that socks were the items least donated to homeless shelters. Brad took action, wishing people "Happy Socktober!" as he gave out socks on the streets. Word got around and people wanted to know how they could help. Since then October has exploded! CDA Ct. St. Bernard #886, Lismore will again support Socktober to help fulfill a need in our area. A tub is set up in the foyer of St. Anthony's Catholic Church to receive donations of new men's, women's, and children's socks.

St Anthony CCW - Boxes of Joy: Please return filled boxes to the back of church or to Mindy Kemper by October 25th. Thank you for filling these boxes for the children. They will be distributed by Cross Catholic Outreach. Lismore CCW will pay the $9/box postage.

Rental for Church Events: Even though there is no evidence that COVID-19 is spread by food, people sharing utensils and congregating around food service areas can pose a risk. * If a cafeteria or group dining room is used, serve individually plated meals or grab-and-go options, and hold activities in separate areas. * Avoid offering any self-serve food or drink options, such as buffets, salad bars, and drink stations. Consider having pre-packaged boxes or bags for each attendee. * Further guidance on food service can be found under Considerations for Events and Gatherings from the CDC as well as Guidance for Providing Food and Beverages for On-site Consumption at Indoor and Outdoor Gatherings. For those people who are serving food, wear masks and gloves. PASTOR'S CORNER

Today's scripture readings for the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time make sure we keep all three dimensions of the Christian life vibrant: God, others, and myself. Our neighbor is an indispensable partner in the common enterprise of loving God and self. The first reading is a selection from the Covenant Code (Exodus 20:22--23:19). It is part of God's communication to Israel on Mount Sinai emphasizing the legal obligations of the covenant people regarding community duties. The question asked of Jesus of which is the greatest commandment of the Law, meant that out of 248 positive commandments and 365 negative commandments in the Torah, Jesus selected two: (1) love the LORD your God (Deuteronomy 6:4-5) and (2) love your neighbor (Leviticus 19:18). Jesus acknowledged that these commandments, sometimes called the Great Commandment, offer the proper spirit that should regulate all the other laws. ~ Father Colletti

A Prayer to All the Saints

(Feast, November 1; from the Rural Life Prayer Book)

TODAY, dear friends in heaven, we celebrate your feast. We celebrate again the feasts of all the saints we know, and whom we honor day by day through the year. But we also honor today all the saints in heaven whom we do not know. We cannot help thinking, on this day, that no one of us lacks a model to follow in one of you. We look around us at the familiar persons and things and activities that fill our everyday lives, and we find that they are little different from the persons, things, and activities that filled your lives. We have the same human nature, wounded by the sin of Adam and Eve, but strengthened marvelously by grace, and fed and sanctified by the sacraments and prayer. We have exactly the same sacraments that you had, we have the same Christ, the same Blessed Mother, the same trials, sickness, pain, temptation, the same joys, pleasures, and happiness that crowded your lives.

Then it must be true that, with the same means, we should be able to work out our lives in the same holiness and sanctity as yours, dear saints. Help us to do this. Help us to see the opportunities for holiness that fill our everyday lives. Obtain for us, by your prayers, the deep understanding and appreciation of spiritual things that were yours. Help us to see, too, in the beauty of the world in which we live, some slight mirroring of the eternal beauty which you now see, as you gaze on God. But let us not be deceived into thinking that this earthly beauty, this worldly pleasure, is an end in itself. Let us use it wisely and moderately, our hearts always yearning to come at last to the final beauty and joy, the possession of God Himself, with you, in heaven. Amen
