PASTOR'S CORNER

As I write this week's column, I am still on quarantine, waiting for the results of my covid test. It reminds me of the gift of patience, and the willingness to follow medical advice on the covid-19 testing for the good of others. Hopefully we are having Masses this weekend, if not, since the obligation to attend Mass is still dispensed, you can pray along on TV Masses on Cable.

Usually we reserve the title "pastor" for the leader of a religious community. The pastor is to shepherd, that is, provide for the religious needs of the flock. But perhaps, we fail to recognize that every believer is also commissioned through baptism to look to the needs of others. That is what we are all doing for the common good during the pandemic. Ezekiel is a pastor. He is compassionate toward the despondent exilic community in the early sixth century B.C. To encourage them, he presents God as a shepherd. Kings of the ancient Near East often received the title of shepherd, implying their concern for the people -- in particular, the legally helpless. Yahweh focuses love on the lost, the strayed, the injured, and the sick. Yahweh is also judge, ruling against the rich who mistreat the poor and lowly.

Matthew's scene today is the Final Judgment. Jesus is the king who will pass judgment on all the nations. This duty is exercised as a shepherd separating sheep from goats, the blessed from the condemned. There is only one criterion in judging, "Truly, I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me" (Matthew 25:40). The blessed are those who recognize Jesus in the needs of their brothers and sisters. On this feast of Christ the King, we are called to be shepherd to the downtrodden and the needy, to pastor them with our own gifts and blessings. Our royalty in the kingdom is measured by the wealth and richness of our generosity and compassion.

~ Father Colletti

*"Arise, soldiers of Christ!
Throw away the works of darkness and put on the armor of light.*

St. Cecilia ~ Virgin, Wife, Martyr ~ Memorial: November 22nd

To Jesus Christ Our Sovereign King

*To Jesus Christ our Sovereign King
who is the world's salvation,
All praise and homage do we bring and thanks and adoration*

*Your reign extend, O King benign,
to every land and nation;
For in your kingdom Lord divine Alone do we find salvation*

*To you and to your Church, great King
We pledge our heart's oblation;
Until before your throne we sing
In endless jubilation*

*Christ Jesus, Victor!
Christ Jesus, Ruler!
Christ Jesus, Lord and Redeemer
~Msgr. Martin Hellriegel, 1941*

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels & Mother of the Americas

*We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.*

*Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation
and world, and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.*

For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.

*Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.
In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient & kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts. We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.*

*Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.*
