Share Your Faith: Next week, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today's readings show us people searching for meaning in life and "faith interpreters" unlocking the answers to their questions. The first reading from the 1st book of Samuel is a scene from the eleventh century B.C. in which the power of the priest Eli passes to Samuel. The scene requires a skilled interpreter. Eli interprets for Samuel that it is the Lord who calls, and thus Eli launches Samuel on one of Israel's most significant careers. The key to Samuel's story, the prayer that would provide the melody line for the rest of his life, was, "Speak, Lord, your servant is listening." Today's psalm echoes that with its "Here am I, Lord, I come to do your will." Mary, the mother of Jesus, embraced her vocation with similar words: "Behold the handmaid of the Lord," thus proclaiming the willingness to give herself fully to whatever God had in mind for her and, through her, for the world.

Today's Gospel offers alternative vocation stories. The least noticed character in this incident is John the Baptist. Fulfilling his humble claim to be the forerunner, John saw Jesus, called him by the mysterious name, "Lamb of God," and sent his own disciples to follow the "one coming after me." As John's disciples set off on the journey that would redefine their lives, Jesus turned to them and asked one of the most basic questions that everyone must answer in our lives: "What/who are you looking for?"

HEALTH MINISTRY INFORMATION

STRESSED? TAKE A BREATH: Did you know practicing simple breathing exercises helps you use your lungs better by getting in touch with your natural breathing rhythm? Conscious breathing also helps lower your blood pressure, controls harmful stress hormones and improves your mood. Try one of these techniques to center your mind and release everyday tension. 1) Sit in a comfortable position. Take a deep breath in through your nose and hold for several seconds. Breathe out through your mouth as you relax with each breath. Repeat three to 10 times. 2) From a standing position, bend forward from the waist with your knees slightly bent and let your arms dangle close to the floor. As you take a deep breath in, return to a standing position by rolling up slowly, lifting your head last. Exhale slowly as you return to the original position, bending forward from the waist. © 2018 inHealth Strategies, LLC / Avera.org/livenow

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels & Mother of the Americas

We fly to you today as your beloved children.

*We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.*

*Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation
and world, and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.*

For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.

Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

*In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient & kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts. We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.*

*Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.*

Amen.

*Do not lose your inward peace
for anything whatsoever
Even if your whole world seems upset.*

*Commend all to God
and then lie still
and be at rest in God's bosom
Whatever happens abide steadfast
in the determination to cling simply to God.
Trusting in God's eternal love for you.*

~Saint Francis de Sales
