

READING RESOURCES ON LITURGY IN O.R.E.

Preparing to Celebrate in Schools

Margaret Bick

Everyone knows the obstacles to good celebration in schools: poor environment for liturgy, too many kids, “crowd control” and confused expectations on the part of many. This book will provide principles to help you through the maze, along with lots of examples of how to apply them in schools large or small.

Preparing Sunday Without the Eucharist

Andrew Britz & Ursuline Zita Maier

As more and more communities face this reality, they are challenged to prepare different forms of celebration. How should this type of celebration “feel”? Does it merit the same attention we give to Sunday Eucharist? What kind of formation do those who are celebrating it or leading it need? Using basic principles of good liturgy, this book helps communities facing this reality to continue to prepare nourishing celebrations. 26.BRIT

Preparing the Eucharistic Table

Barry Glendinning

Little attention has been given to preparing the liturgy of the Eucharist, the centre of our celebration - often because people assume that it is the priest's prayer. But pay attention to the words of the various collects, the variety of Eucharistic prayers, the acclamations, the gestures and music of the communion rite, and this aspect of your celebrations will come alive. This book takes you through these resources, pointing out how, in your community, you can prepare a festive, nourishing table of the Eucharist.

26.GLENPreparing to Preside

Barry Glendinning

Presiding demands much more than being in the right place with the right words at the right time. The ministry of the preacher - lay or ordained - is crucial in liturgy. The art of gathering up the people's prayer and giving voice to it can be learned, and must be prepared. 26.GLEN

Recommended devotional practices to Our Lady are also included. (1988) ISBN: 0-88-090000-8 BOOK # 10.025

How to Understand the Liturgy

LENGTH: 148 pages

AUTHOR: Jean Lebon PUBLISHER: SCM Press, London

This book lays out clearly the underlying truths of liturgy and applies them to the celebration of the eucharistic liturgy. The first part explores the nature of signs and symbols, sacraments and rites from their earliest appearance. The second part traces the development of Christian liturgy from its first gatherings to the elaboration of places and forms of worship and the music and dress which goes with them. The third part looks more specifically to the eucharistic liturgy. (1986) ISBN: 0-334-02039-5 BOOK # 11.027 (2 copies)

New Horizons in Catholic Worship

The Word and Eucharist Handbook

LENGTH: 140 pages

AUTHOR: Lawrence J. Johnson PUBLISHER: Resource Publications

Similar in format to "Mystery of Faith" (# 11.009), this handbook gives the historical, theological and liturgical aspects of each element of the Mass. The author provides all necessary documentation, including the GIRM as well as an excellent section of recommended readings after each element is discussed. It is a great resource for understanding as well as practical applications for planning. (1986) ISBN: 0-89390-067-2 BOOK # 11.033

- Catechesis for Liturgy A Program for Parish Involvement LENGTH: 179 pages
AUTHOR: Gilbert Ostdiek PUBLISHER: Pastoral Press
 This book makes a most valuable contribution towards promoting a consciousness-raising liturgical catechesis. He proposes an integrated program of pastoral care for the liturgy consisting of catechesis, preparation, and evaluation. The catechetical process holds much promise for forming a new liturgical identity and disposition in our parishioners, aware of themselves as full participant by right and with responsibility for the liturgical action. (1986) ISBN: 0-912405-23-6 BOOK # 11.034
- Active Sharing in Public Worship LENGTH: 43 pages
AUTHOR: J.B. O'Connell PUBLISHER: Burnes and Oates
 Quite an early commentary on the chief purpose of the Second Vatican Council's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy. Concentration is on active sharing in public worship, its purpose and some ways by which it may be achieved. (1964) BOOK # 11.035
- Spirit and Song of the New Liturgy LENGTH: 281 pages
AUTHOR: Lucien Deiss, C.C.Sp. PUBLISHER: World Library Pub.
 Father Deiss gives insight into the spirit of the liturgical renewal as expressed in the song of the Church. A detailed study of each part of the Mass, its meaning, function, and musical potential, as well as helpful techniques for realizing maximum participation are included. Topics include music sung by the priest, the people and the choir; the choral director; acclamations, psalmody, processional songs, litanies and hymnody; instruments and Gregorian Chant. (1970) BOOK # 11.036
- Beyond East and West: Problems of Liturgical Understanding LENGTH: 203 pages
AUTHOR: Robert Taft, S.J. PUBLISHER: The Pastoral Press
 These essays deal with liturgy, both Eastern and Western, from the standpoint of history, theology, and pastoral practice. Practice is built on tradition—the Church's self-consciousness now of that which has been handed on to her not as an inert treasure but as a dynamic inner life. "If we want to know what Christmas and Chrismation, Eucharist and Easter mean, we must plunge into the enormous stream of liturgical and patristic evidence and wade through it piece by piece, age by age, ever alert to pick up shifts in the current as each generation reaches for its own understanding of what it is we are about", says the author. A beautiful chapter by the author is "Thanksgiving for the Light", a theology of Vespers. (1984) ISBN: 0912405-13-9 BOOK # 11.037
- Learning to Celebrate: The Mass and its Music LENGTH: 114 pages
AUTHOR: Joseph Gelineau PUBLISHER: Pastoral Press
 Renowned liturgist and musician, Father Gelineau, focuses his insight on the pivotal points for music in the Mass: the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Particularly helpful to all who prepare liturgy, both pastoral musicians and presiders. Added documentation from the GIRM is also provided. (1985) ISBN: 0-912405-21-X BOOK # 11.038
- Worship in a New World LENGTH: 110 pages
AUTHOR: Rev. James Dallen PUBLISHER: NA. Liturgy Resources
 Although somewhat dated, this book compiled from a series of articles by the author, has some helpful topical reprints which could be helpful in preparing inserts for parish bulletins. (1972) BOOK # 11.039
- The Order of Mass: Guidelines LENGTH: 56 pages
AUTHOR: Eugene A. Walsh, S.S. PUBLISHER: Pastoral Arts Assoc.
 The goal of this booklet is not just the structure of the Mass but on the pace and flow of one part to the next. A basic understanding of the structure of the Mass is the foundation and starting-point for all celebrants, musicians and other ministers. (1981) ISBN: 0-89699-021-4 BOOK # 11.041
- Music in Catholic Worship LENGTH: 17 paged booklet

Together at Mass LENGTH: 141 pages
AUTHOR: Eugene S. Geissler, Kenneth W. Peters, PUBLISHER: Ave Maria Press
A prayerful and meditative commentary on the Mass, noting particularly its close relationship to Jesus Christ, his life and message. Besides the elements of the Mass, 24 Liturgies of the Word are included. Photos throughout the book illustrate the meaning of the Mass in the lives of Christians in today's world. (1973) ISBN: 0-87793-051-1 BOOK # 11.049

How to Get More Out of the Mass LENGTH: 144 pages
AUTHOR: Joseph McGloin, S.J. PUBLISHER: Liguori Publications
A freewheeling commentary on the Mass for those who know enough about the Mass to want to know more. It is written in a contemporary and interesting style. The topics could be used to prepare insert material in parish bulletins. The cartoon drawings are most enjoyable. (1974) BOOK # 11.051

Come Celebrate the Mass LENGTH: 64 pages
AUTHOR: Rev. K.J. MacDonald PUBLISHER: Diocese of Winnipeg
A pastoral aid on the Liturgical Celebration of the Mass on the Lord's Day. (circa 1970) BOOK # 11.053

New Introductions to the Sacramentary and Lectionary LENGTH: 90 pages
AUTHOR: National Liturgy Office (ed.) PUBLISHER: CCCB Public. Service

Study edition of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (1975) and the Introduction of the Lectionary for Mass (1981). Prepared for study groups with translations by ICEL. (1983) BOOK # 11.060

Manual of Celebration Commentary for Planners LENGTH: Average of 39 pages

AUTHOR: Robert W. Hovda PUBLISHER: The Liturgical Confer.

Folders are divided according to chapter: The Introduction, Rite of Baptism for Several Children; Rite for Celebrating Marriage During Mass, Rite of Funerals for Adults, Sunday Eucharist, Occasional Services.

This manual contains help for Liturgy Planning teams, studying the new rites for Mass, the Sacraments: marriage, funerals, baptism etc. The revised texts are given and they are joined to pastoral ideas for the adaptation and enrichment of public services. The introduction, particularly, is worth careful study for although being an early work in the liturgical renewal after Vatican II, the principles are still sound.

(1972) BOOK # 11.061 - 11.066

Shaping English Liturgy LENGTH: 493 pages

(1990) ISBN: 0-912405-72-4 BOOK # 11.069

To Hear and Proclaim Introduction Lectionary for Mass LENGTH: 120pages

AUTHOR: Ralph A. Keifer PUBLISHER: Nat..Ass Past. Music.

A commentary on the Introduction of 1981, which is given in its entirety, is very positive about new developments in the Roman rite. The document, Keifer says, addresses everything from lay preaching to the use of leaflet missals, while condemning nothing, accepting much, and reproving little, it represents a landmark in official commentary on liturgical practice. The commentator seeks mainly to underling the fundamental principles in the document, where those principles seem to be least understood and most often neglected. (1983) ISBN: 1-56929-004-0 BOOK # 11.072 (2 copies)

This is Our Mass LENGTH: 149 pages

AUTHOR: Tom Coyle PUBLISHER: 23rd Publications

A simple down-to-earth explanation of the Mass. The historical, liturgical, and spiritual dimensions of the Mass are presented to assist Catholics in understanding the eucharistic celebration. This book is an ideal book for RCIA candidates, and alienated Catholics returning to the church. Religious instruction for teenagers and young adults will also be enhanced by the useful information contained in this handy book. (1989) ISBN: 0-89622-394-9 BOOK # 11.074

From Age to Age: How Christians Celebrated the Eucharist LENGTH: 206 pages

AUTHOR: Edward Foley PUBLISHER: Lit. Training Pub.

Through architecture, music, books and vessels, Father Foley traces the origins of Christian celebration from its Jewish roots to our own time. Lavishly illustrated with maps, photographs, drawings and music, this book recaptures the experience of the ordinary Christian worshippers at Eucharist and traces the development of the theology of liturgical celebration. (1991) ISBN: 0-929650 BOOK # 11.080

Sunday Morning

AUTHOR: Gail Ramshaw PUBLISHER: Liturgy Train. Public.

How does a parent, a friend or a teacher begin to talk with a young child about what the church does on Sunday morning? One way is to look at pictures and to tell their stories and to let these stories echo what the church is doing: when we gather, when we pray, when we exchange the greeting of peace. The pages of this book allow all of this and more. (1993) ISBN: 1-56854-005-1 BOOK # 11.085 (Children’s shelf)

Celebration of the Word LENGTH: 145 pages

AUTHOR: Lucien Deiss PUBLISHER: Liturgical Press

In this book, Father Deiss comments on the richness and imperfections of the Lectionary, considers the relationship between the celebration of the Word and the celebration of the Covenant, and then comments on the role of the Responsorial Psalm, the homily, the Prayer of the Faithful, the participant in the celebration of the Word, and the objects, places, and rites which make up the ritual environment of this celebration. Echoing God's Word

AUTHOR: James B. Dunning

Catechesis is the process of “echoing” the word of God. In this book, the author offers his vision of catechesis in a church called to mission in the modern world. Dunning then presents a method to help catechists and homilists prepare to open God’s word. This book is primarily for those who will preach or catechize during the period of the catechumenate, but it is also for all who strive to help make God’s word accessible and to echo it in ways that release its liberating message. BOOK# 11.098

The Mass (Questions and Answers)

Dennis Smolarksi, S.J.

Liturgy Training Publications, 2002

Questions that priests and liturgists, music directors, liturgy committees, ministry coordinators and diocesan liturgy offices frequently ask about the Mass are answered here with legal expertise and pastoral sensitivity by Father Dennis Smolarksi, S.J. The answer takes into account the 2000 edition of the GIRM as well as other official documents. At the same time, each answer is informed with the common sense and pastoral sensitivity of an author who has spent much of his life on both sides of the alter - as presider and member of the assembly. ISBN 1-56854-358-1 B OOK# 11.133

Preparing the Eucharistic Table

By: Barry Glendinning

PUBLISHER: Novalis

Little attention has been given to preparing the liturgy of the Eucharist, the centre of our celebration - often because people assume that it is the priest's prayer. But pay attention to the words of the various collects, the variety of Eucharistic prayers, the acclamations, the gestures and music of the communion rite, and this aspect of your celebrations will come alive. This booklet takes you through these resources, pointing out how, in your community, you can prepare a festive, nourishing table off the Eucharist.

Preparing and Evaluating Liturgy

By: Bernadette Gasslein

PUBLISHER: Novalis

How can we know if our ministry of preparation was effective? How can we tell whether the community's worship offered it an experience of "full, conscious active" preparation in the liturgy? Without evaluation, the work of preparation can either spin its wheels, or drift on a sea of good intentions. This book will help your preparation team learn to ask the right questions of the right people, and integrate these responses into ongoing preparation. BOOK# 13.013L

Liturgical Sermons

By: Rev. Gerard Weber & James Killgallon

Publisher: Alba House

This series of homiletic outlines elucidates the focal points in the Constitution of the Sacred Liturgy. The aim of these outlines is to help in the preparation of homilies based mostly on the Epistle of the Mass. They are not intended to be preached as printed; rather they are meant to help the priest in preparing his own sermon to meet the needs of his people. BOOK #13.030

Yours is a Share: The Call of Liturgical Ministry

By: Austin Fleming

In the context of a prayer for each liturgical ministry, a vision and a mandate are enunciated and a blessing pronounced. This book would be useful for a mandating service or simply as a reflection for a specific liturgical ministry. Material is repeated in #12.083. BOOK #13.033

Giving Life: The Ministry of the Parish Sunday Assembly

By: Eugene A. Walsh, SS

PUBLISHER: PAANA

Giving Life is a message to all members of Catholic parishes, regardless of whether a member is also active in an individual liturgical ministry. It is a synopsis of the sense-of-church which Eugene A. Walsh tries to bring alive in people through his renewal weekends in parishes, through his other workshops and his published writings. It is not the only way possible to spell out parish priorities or goals, but we believe that it is the best catalyst available for the pressing task of a parish community identifying g and articulating its self-understanding and serious goals. BOOK #13.043

Special Ministries at Sunday Mass: Understanding and Expectations

By: Eugene A. Walsh, SS

PUBLISHER: PAANA

This booklet's principles, understandings and expectations are proposed to serve two purposes in a parish. First, they bring to the attention of all present and prospective ministers the most basic understandings and expectations by the parish community of their ministry. Secondly, therefore, the matters in the following few pages can constitute a kind of "contract" between the celebrating assemblies of a parish and their members who would offer "special" ministry. BOOK #13.044

Gathering for Each Other

By: Eugene A Walsh, SS

PUBLISHER: PAANA

The purpose of this booklet is to invite you to take a fresh look at what our Church intends parish Sunday Mass to be ... and to discover that the leadership of the priest and other ministers depends totally upon a very real ministry to other people that only you can decide is worth giving. The things we stress in these pages might give you more questions than answers. Our hope is that your might share your reactions to our thoughts with other people in your parish. BOOK #13.045

The Ministry of the Celebrating Community

By: Eugene A. Walsh, SS

DEATH & LIFE: PREPARING FOR THE CATHOLIC FUNERAL MASS

Tabor Publishing

Visiting the home of a bereaved family as soon as information about the death occurs is a very powerful, highly comforting and pastorally effective procedure. After greeting and listening for a period of time, the pastoral minister or bereavement committee member could suggest playing this video. The video could also be left at the house during the sometimes empty and difficult hours between the time of death and the beginning of calling hours or the funeral mass. The priest or parish delegate would also indicate that someone will talk with the family, probably the evening before the Eucharistic liturgy, about their possible selections and personal requests for the Mass. GUIDE. LENGTH: 30 min. VID#: 16.701 (Grief section)

CHILDREN, LITURGY and the WORLD PUBLISHED: Archdiocese of Chicago, 1997, L.T.P.

See how children at St. Julie Billiart Church in Tinley Park, Illinois, process from the assembly to celebrate their own liturgy of the word with ritual words, singing and gestures. Listen to how the lay presider proclaims the scriptures from the Lectionary for Masses with Children and preaches to the children. This is seen in the context of the entrance rite, the dismissal and the children's participation in the liturgy of the Eucharist with the larger assembly. LENGTH: 26 min. VID#: 22.000

THE MASS FOR CHILDREN

SPEAKER: Fr. Maurice Nutt PUBLISHED: Liguori Publications (1993)

This video is unique in that it uses strong images of Jesus throughout, and concentrates on real-life situations. With short vignettes, it shows how we can bring problems with family and friends to the Mass and experience reconciliation in the Eucharist. This video provides a tremendous opportunity to send a direct message to children in an entertaining way: the celebration of the Eucharist is a life-giving and joyous experience. GUIDE. LENGTH: approx. 30 min. VID#: 22.001

THE ANGEL'S MASS LESSON

SPEAKER: Gwen Costello PUBLISHER: Twenty Third Publications, 1995

Danny wants to go on a weekend class trip, but his parents won't let him miss Mass. Danny is very angry about this, so the angel Veritas comes for a visit. He takes Danny "back in time" to the second century. They visit a "house church" where early Christians have gathered to celebrate the Eucharist. They Danny witnesses the vibrant faith of these Christians and he feels their joy and enthusiasm. Before this experience, Danny took Mass for granted. After it, he understands that celebrating Eucharist is a privilege and that his faith is a precious gift. GUIDE. LENGTH: 13 min. VID#: 22.002

AMANDA GOES TO MASS

SPEAKER: JoAnn Marie Angers PUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications (1991)

In this delightful video program, Amanda shares her joy as she participates in the Eucharistic celebration. She explains, in simple and direct terms, her understanding of what happens when she and her family worship with their parish family. Full-colour video cartoon artwork draws primary and intermediate age children into the story, and help foster their enthusiasm for the appreciation of the Sunday liturgy. The script fully reflects the Mass as it is celebrated today, as each part of the Eucharistic celebration is shown and defined. GUIDE. LENGTH: 9 min. VID#: 22.003

THE ANGEL'S CHURCH YEAR LESSON

Twenty Third Publications

Angel Vita wants children everywhere to know that Jesus is with them always. With the help of Angels Caritas and Benedicta, she decides to invite children on a journey through the church year. The angels open a special "blessing" book that takes them (and the children watching) into their journey. Children learn about what happened to Jesus in each church season, including Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Easter, Pentecost, and Ordinary Time. GUIDE. LENGTH: 11 min. VID#: 22.004

THE LITURGICAL YEAR AND SUNDAY

Easter Vigil

LENGTH: 55 MIN.

Liturgies of the Triduum # 3

PUBLISHER: Liturgy Training Pub.

From Thursday night until sundown on Saturday, the church prays and keeps the paschal fast. Then the church celebrates the great Easter Vigil, which is the subject of this video. "This is the night," the cantor proclaims, the night spent first around a blazing fire, then around a newly-lighted candle, then with the scriptures, from which we proclaim once again the stories of our salvation. Finally, the saints process to the front, where those who have been long preparing renounce evil, profess faith in Christ, and enter the waters. Then they are anointed with chrism and join the rest of the joyful assembly to celebrate the Eucharist. It is a splendid night, indeed! ISBN 1-56854-343-3 VID # 12.727

SPEAKERS:

Margaret Bick and Bishop Meagher

A set of three videos on the Triduum produced by Vision T.V., Holy Week (April 20, 21, 22) 2000. Margaret Bick speaks of the liturgy of the day followed by a homily on the feast by Bishop Meagher, who is now the Archbishop of Kingston. These are excellent videos for liturgy committees to study while preparing their own parish liturgies; as well as for shut-ins who are unable to attend the parish church services. A set of three videos. VID # 12.728-12.730.

Tape 1: "Hour of Glory" - Holy Thursday

Tape 2: "Hour of Glory" - Good Friday

Making Sunday Worship Work*

LENGTH: 117 MIN.

PRESENTER: Rev. Donald Osuna

PUBLISHER: Franciscan Comm.

We all want Sunday Mass to be an inspiring and a deeply prayerful celebration. This video is designed to help prepare for Sunday worship to do just that. The programme offers stimulating and inspiring scenes of the ministers within the celebrating community. Each part is approximately one-half hour and can serve for excellent discussion.

Part 1: Ministries of Welcome: artist, usher, greeter, song leader and presiding priest all explain the importance of animating the congregation before the liturgy.

Part 2: Ministries of Music: cantor, music director and a church choir director demonstrate how congregational and choral music play a key role in enabling the assembly to pray well together.

Part 3: Ministries of the Word: lector, deacon, homilist give attention to proclaim the scriptures with power and conviction.

Part 4: Ministries of the Table: acolyte, deacon, presider, eucharistic minister and bread baker present their personal experiences of these ministries. VID # 14.701

HolyWeek: The Triduum

PRESENTER: Rev. Murray Kroetsch

Non-professionally produced

Diocesan workshop held January 17, 1987. Father Murray discusses the Mystery of Lent: beginning with an understanding of the Paschal Mystery; our baptismal incorporation into Christ, and that all liturgy celebrates the Paschal Mystery. Then he speaks about each of the three days of Holy Week: Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday. VID # 14.702 (2 copies)

Celebrating the Seasons: Advent/Christmas

PRESENTER: various members of the Liturgical Com.

Non-professionally produced

Diocesan workshop held November 12, 1988. Some use of slides were also used. Only two of the sessions are presented here: Environment and Creativity: presented by Sister Wanda MacDonald and Sister Gayle Desarmia; Proclamation of the Advent/Christmas Readings by Mary Pat Byrne. Parish Liturgy Committees will find much here to help them prepare for the Season—symbols and customs of the season, ideas for creating banners and other aspects of the environment. Lectors will also profit from the explanation of the connectedness of the various Sundays of the Advent/Christmas Season and a better understanding of the various readings. VID # 14.703

Gathering the Children

Non-professionally produced

Diocesan workshop held at the Diocesan Centre on November 10, 1990. Several pastors and teams participated in these two tapes.

Tape 1: Directory for Masses with Children, sample liturgies, planning, discussion

Sister Doherty presents the vision of the Directory for Masses with Children as it regards Liturgies of the Word with children on Sundays. Three parish teams present casually their way of organizing the primary, older and eldest groups who come for Junior Liturgy. Some discussion takes place after these presentations. VID # 14.704

Tape 2: Questions continued from morning session led by parish group, resources discussed by Sister Mary Hamilton, a panel speaking about how they do Children's Word Liturgy, as well as explaining the development of Family Masses at St. Mary's Cathedral. Some music included.

Let's Celebrate Holy Week*

PRESENTER: Rev. Malcolm Smith

Privately but professionally produced

In this video Father Smith explains each one of the liturgical celebrations of Holy Week. With a camera crew, he went to five different parishes in Montreal (St. Mary's, St. Edmond's, St. Patrick's, Good Shepherd and St. Ignatius of Loyola) and recorded the different liturgies of Holy Week. On this video he explains each celebration as it unfolds. VID # 14.706

How to Celebrate the Word with Children...and why

LENGTH: 33:30 MIN.

PRODUCER/DIRECTOR: Gerard A. Pottebaum

PUBLISHER: Treehaus Publications

This video provides a demonstration of a celebration of the Word with children, supported by a wealth of information on the main components of a celebration, their significance, and the importance of adapting the reading in language children understand. People who authored the Directory for Masses with Children, or piloted the Sunday lectionary series were involved in creating this video which not only informs, but communicates the spirit of celebrating the Word with children. VID # 14.707

Children, Liturgy and the Word*

LENGTH: 26 MIN

PRESENTER: Maria Leonard

PUBLISHER: Liturgy Training Pub..

This video presents the celebration of the Liturgy of the Word with Children. It is not meant to demonstrate how the LWC should be celebrated but invites parishes to explore reasons why they might choose to celebrate a separate Liturgy of the Word with Children; and how such liturgy would be adapted to age, abilities, and capacity of children; and how to integrate the children into a single assembly.

We Shall God Up With Joy: The Entrance Rites of the Mass LENGTH: 30 MIN
PRESENTERS: Varied PUBLISHER: Lit. Training Pub.
Through the various ways of doing the entrance procession and greeting, we see how these rites take people who are isolated by their individual cares and bring them and their cares to be the church.
ISBN 1-56854-048-5 VID # 11.725

The Word of the Lord*: The Liturgy of the Word of the Mass LENGTH: 29 MIN.
PRESENTERS: Varied PUBLISHER: Lit. Training Publications
Christians are people of the book, the Sacred Scriptures. Every Sunday our communities gather to read our book and to listen. In this video we see the people of Christ the King in Las Vegas on the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The word of God is proclaimed with vigour, respect and understanding. Those who read the scriptures and those who preach talk about their preparation and ministry. Parishioners speak about what they need and hope for from the liturgy of the word, including the singing of psalms and acclamations around the attentive listening to scripture. People reflect on the place of Sunday scripture in their lives, how it is read at home and in places where children and adults gather for discussion and study. ISBN 1-56854-047-7 VID # 11.726

The Roman Catholic Mass Today LENGTH: 30 MIN.
[The Introduction to the 4-part video series on the Mass] PUBLISHER: Lit. Training Publications
What does it look like and sound like when the parish leadership has made strong liturgical celebrations the heart of all parish life? This video is guaranteed to get people's attention and start some conversations. Here are four parishes from four very different parts of the Catholic Church in the United States. And they know so well what to do when Sunday morning comes! From preparation in the home to the procession and singing of the entrance. From attentive listening to God's word to the setting of the table and acclamations of praise in the Eucharistic prayer. From their Great Amen to their communion procession and their busy visiting after Mass. From older children through veteran Catholics; everyone can get a glimpse of the direction we are going with liturgical renewal. Suitable to show to parish staffs, to general adult education groups; for retreats, for training ministers, for liturgists and catechists, for presiders and ushers, singers and readers. ISBN 1-56854-049-3 VID # 11.728

Lay-Led Sunday Worship: Understanding Sunday Worship In the Absence of a Priest
AUTHOR: Patrick L. Malloy PUBLISHER: The Liturgical Press
By focussing on lay-led Sunday worship celebrated in three different parishes, the video explains the structure of services as outlined in the National Council of Catholic Bishops' Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest and gives the reactions of parishioners, presiders and priests to this emerging form of Catholic worship. Included in this presentation is an excellent step-by-step instruction on the Liturgy of the Hours and how it is structured. Of interest to all Adult groups examining ways and means of leading a faith community in prayer. LENGTH: 33 MIN ISBN 0-8146-7904-8 VID # 11.729

PREACHING THE JUST WORD – a five video series See individual listings for description.

PUBLISHER: Lit.Training Publications

I - Preaching the Just Word *

PRESENTER: W. Burghardt et al.

Here is excitement and enthusiasm about preaching. This montage of presentations, conversations and interviews will expand the viewer's vision of justice and provide practical pointers for honing and improving preaching skills. It inspires homilists to give the assembly what it is entitled to, desires and needs. How can our homilies both encourage and challenge our communities to live justly in a challenging time? How can we preach about justice without using jargon and cliché? How can we recognize and name the power of sin and injustice in the world? Where do we find the even greater power of grace, love and reconciliation? LENGTH: 40 MIN. ISBN 1-56854-077-9 VID # 11.730

II - A Biblical View of Justice

PRESENTER: Sharkey, Sarah A. O.P

We are presented with a biblical view of justice - the right ordering of all relationships: with God, with our brothers and sisters, and with the earth. Beginning with the scriptures and building on the Catholic tradition of social teaching, we see how justice takes shape in daily life. VID # 11.731

III - Catholic Social Teaching

PRESENTER: Carr, John L.

With lively stories and startling examples, Carr presents the "signs of the times," the cultural and political world in which we live our faith. What unique response and vision can the Catholic community of faith give? Answers come from years of experience: the practical direction for preaching and actions, dangers to avoid. LENGTH: 100 MIN. approx. ISBN 1-56954-138-4 VID # 11.732

IV - The Liturgy that does Justice

PRESENTER: Hughes, Kathleen RSCJ

What is the connection between liturgy and justice? Does the God of justice speak only through the word and homily or rather throughout the entire liturgy? What is the role of liturgy in the process of conversion? Hughes traces the development of the liturgical and Catholic social action in the United States. Because the homily is integral to the liturgy, the presenter gives a method of preparation and reflection based on the liturgy itself. LENGTH: 90 MIN. Approx. ISBN 1-56854-138-2 VID # 11.733

V - Preparing the Homily

AUTHOR: Walter J. Burghardt, SJ

"An unprepared homilist is a pastoral peril" says Walter Burghardt. What is adequate, appropriate preparation? How can the radical dimension of the gospel as it touches society be heard in the church? Burghardt leads us step-by-step through both remote and proximate preparation for effective preaching. He explores the role of scripture, theology and tradition and demonstrates how to translate these into popular language. Biblical justice based on fidelity to God, our sisters and brothers and the earth is contrasted with ethical justice. From the example of this master preacher we learn the role of imagination and rhetoric in preaching. Burghardt shares with the viewer a practical, realistic approach to preparation and gives suggestions for homilies on special occasions. LENGTH: 24 MIN. ISBN 1-56854-140-6 VID # 11.734

Fire in the Pews *

LENGTH: 30 MIN.

PRESENTERS: Varied

PUBLISHER: Oblate Media/Com. Corp.

Focusing on a unique and diverse group, this program looks at what Black Catholics share with other U.S. Catholics, and at those things which are unique to them. An exciting look at a group which is sure to challenge and inspire the American Catholic Church. VID # 11.735

Eucharistic Adoration

LENGTH: 28 MIN.

AUTHOR: Groeschel, Rev. Benedict J., CFR PUBLISHER: Pauline Video
Why is adoration of Jesus in the Eucharist central in Catholic devotional life? Father Benedict Groeschel explains that the Eucharistic presence of Christ is for all of us. This inspiring program clearly presents the Church's teaching on the Eucharist, including the development of Eucharistic devotion from earliest Christian times up to the present day. Encouraging both reverence and devotion, Father Groeschel urges the viewer to discover or rediscover the joy of spending time with the Lord through Eucharistic adoration. Ideal for both parish and personal use. ISBN 0-8198-2342-2 VID # 11.737

Gather Faithfully Together* PUBLISHER: Lit.Training Publications
Based on the Pastoral Letter of Cardinal R. Mahoney. VID # 11.738

What Do We Do at Mass? * LENGTH: 17 MIN.
PRESENTERS: Varied PUBLISHER: Lit.Training Publications
A video for children that takes children seriously! The children (ages 7-13) in the video speak about their understanding of the Mass. They speak with confidence and spontaneity, providing wonderful insights into the Mass that will inspire not only their peers but adults too. This video is a remarkable witness to the religious life of children. A leader's guide packed with ideas for continuing this conversation with children in your care is included with this video. Along with questions for discussion and a list of resources, it includes a transcript of the children's reflections heard on the video. It is appropriate for Junior and Senior Kindergarten, grades 1-6; as well as review of the Mass for First Communion Preparation, as well as the formation of Altar Servers. ISBN 1-56854-346-8 VID # 11.739

Mass In A Moment
PRESENTER: Margaret Bick PUBLISHER: Nat.Cath. Broad.Council
Originally presented on National Television during October 2000, these short clips on the various parts of the Mass would be excellent for beginning discussions, for study groups, liturgy committees and all interested in deepening their understanding of the Catholic Celebration of Eucharist. VID # 11.740

A Mass in American Sign Language
AUTHOR: Patrick Graybill & Fran Ripplinger PUBLISHER: Nat. Cath. Office/Deaf
The Mass signed but without voice-over. Also available are lesson plans for preparing deaf children for Holy Communion (four binders). VID # 11.741

A History of the Mass
AUTHOR: Rev. John H. McKenna
This excellent video traces the evolution of the Mass, showing how it was shaped and reshaped by times and cultures, by theologies and the arts. You will see the visual record of our past and hear from witnesses along the way, people who got engaged in the conversation about the meaning and celebration of Sunday Mass.
Especially useful for RCIA, High School and Adult groups, liturgy committees, school and parish staffs.

Why We Go to Mass * LENGTH: 87 MIN. (three 30 min. seg.)
AUTHOR: Rev. J-Glenn Murray, SJ
Why do we celebrate Mass? How is the Mass relevant to our lives today? Popular liturgist J-Glenn Murray, S.J., takes on critics who challenge that the Mass is "boring" or has little to do with daily life.

He shows viewers the dynamic celebration that is our Catholic liturgy. In this video, Rev. Murray energetically addresses such issues as table fellowship and ritual, then walks viewers through the order of the Mass, explaining how each part calls for our “full, conscious, active participation” in God’s work here on earth. ISBN 0-8294-1934-9 VID # 11.744
