LENT/EASTER

Mysterium Paschale: The Mystery of Easter

Hans Urs Von Balthasar

This is an account, at once rigorously theological and warmly devotional, of the death and resurrection of Christ, and their significance for the Christian life. The author offers sharp insights into some current controversies and spiritual inspiration for the year round. This scholarly reflection of the climax of the Christian year is an established classic of contemporary Catholic theology. 27.BALT

Experiencing Mystagogy: The Sacred Pause of Easter

Gerard Baumbauch

A companion book for neophytes, Experiencing Mystagogy makes connections between the lectionary of the Easter Season with human experience, the initiation process - especially the ritual celebrations - and the tradition of the church so that the neophyte can take his or her place within the community of the faithful focused on serving the mission of the reign of God. 27.BAUM

Easter Bread

William Bruns

This book presents the rich fare of the Sunday gospels during the Easter season in a way that especially nurtures the faith of the new baptised and all those who have shared their journey. It contains the gospel texts for the Sundays of the Easter season and the Ascension. It provides a spiritual Commentary on the gospel, Connections to help neophytes remember and "savour" their experience, and a Prayer/Reflection for each week. 27.BRUN

Season of Mercy: Lent & Easter

Catherine Doherty

Catherine Doherty leads us into the riches of God's boundless mercy as she teaches us the spirit, the liturgy, and the customs of the Lent-Easter season. 27.DOHE

Arts and Crafts for Lent

Jeanne Heiberg

This book offers detailed instructions for creating classroom and home craft projects from simple materials during Mardi Gras and the Christian penitential season. Added to the instructions, Arts & Crafts for Lent includes educational background on the season, enabling parents and teachers to turn projects into learning experiences. This book also contains prayers and ritual blessings children of all ages can participate in when their art projects are completed. 27.HEIB

Lent is for Children

Julie Kelemen

Liguori, 1993

This book offers a fund way for your young Catholic to learn and understand Lenten practices and many other Lenten basics. 27.KELE

Easter for 50 Days

Bernard Maxwell, Judy Foster, Jill Shirvington

The authors share with us ideas for liturgical celebrations that will renew, inspire and revitalize your parish's awareness of the unique promise held by the 50 days of Easter. There is much material here that will be most useful in the classroom, as well as provide encouraging stimulus for liturgists, homilists, catechists, musicians, and others involved in planning positive, Christian faith experiences. 27.MAXW

Lenten Lunches

Archbishop Daniel Pilarczyk

The menu for Lenten Lunches includes food for thought - a "lunch" - for each Lenten weekday, beginning with Ash Wednesday, and includes the Triduum and Easter Week as a kind of dessert course. 27.PILAR

All the Days of Lent

Colane Recker O.S.F.

A really practical "everyone-can-do-it" guide to a rewarding Lenten spiritual exercise. For each day of Lent - including Sundays - the author expresses a thought taken from the liturgy of the day, makes a practical suggestion for a deed to be done or a promise to be made that calls for a degree of sacrifice, and offers a passage from scripture for meditation. 27.RECK

The Essential Lenten Handbook

Redemptorist Publication

This book provides everything you need for a richer experience of the forty days before Easter. Whether you wish to follow a traditional program of Lenten devotion centered around prayer, a 'modern' program that focuses on Scripture readings, a family model that brings your loved ones together for a shared spiritual journey, or a unique devotional program of your own devising, this all-in-one resource will be a treasured Lenten guide. 27.REDE

The First Easter: What Really Happened?

H. J. Richards

In this comprehensive, popular presentation of this century's critical study of the Bible, the author offers today's believers a way to affirm the resurrection in this age. College students, adults involved in Bible studies and teens and adults in general will find this book a treasure to read and re-read. Clergy and lay persons who proclaim the gospels will find this book rewarding and a constant source for lessons in their preaching and teaching ministries. 27.RICH

Fasting

Carole Rogers

Sorin Books, 2004

Fasting is a universal spiritual practice, common in both Eastern and Western cultures, and a part of almost every religious tradition. It is also an important secular practice, often for a political or social cause such as peace, justice, or to alleviate hunger. This helpful guide includes perspectives that cross time and tradition, plus plenty of practical help, with historical information, inspiring personal stories and plenty of encouragement. 27.ROGE

EASTER SEASON: A TIME TO REMEMBER

SPEAKER: Kathleen Chesto PUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications (1991)

Parents experience a "letting go" as their children grow into adulthood and begin a new life. But parents also learn that memory will hold a family together, despite moves or transitions. And so family experience can teach us about the Eucharist, in which we remember Jesus' passion and death and celebrate his new life in the resurrection. GUIDE. LENGTH: 20 min. VID#: 18.102

LENT: A TIME TO FORGIVE

SPEAKER: Kathleen Chesto PUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications (1991)

Lent allows us to slow down and realize that we are loved for who we are, not for what we do. Parents can accept and love their children, despite their mistakes. The sacrament of Reconciliation offers us this same gift of forgiveness. We can learn to forgive and accept ourselves as God does, and then offer forgiveness to others. GUIDE. LENGTH: 20 min. VID#: 18.103

THE ANGEL'S LENTEN LESSON

SPEAKER: Gwen Costello

PUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications (1995)

It's not enough having to attend religion classes ... now Danny has to complete a take-home quiz on Lent, and he's not happy about it! He's lived through seven lenten seasons but is having trouble remembering the meaning of Lent: Why the ashes? How do we pray during Lent? What's the purpose of fasting? Danny is struggling with the quiz when he is suddenly surprised by an unlikely visitor, his guardian angel, who helps him remember what the lenten season is all about, and ... they have fun doing it. Danny comes to realize the importance of Lent in the Church and in his own life through an encounter he will not soon forget. (Nor will your students!) This video is perfect for children in grades 3 through 8 -- those with little background and those who just need their memories jogged. A Teacher's Guide offers background information about Lent, suggested activities and follow-up questions for discussion. GUIDE.

ROLLING BACK THE ROCK

Acta Publications, 1990

John Shea, master storyteller and theologian, reflects on the true meaning of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday. With his characteristic brilliance, Shea offers startling new insights into the familiar events of Holy Week. Using the Passion narratives of the four Gospels and many other scripture passages along with contemporary insights and classic stories, Shea provides inspiration and spiritual challenge. This video is divided into four half-hour segments. Shea's commentary is preceded by an "angel of the Lord" who introduces each segment. A Discussion Guide offers suggestions for using this video in adult education, Lenten discussion programs, RCIA, Bible study and similar settings. GUIDE. LENGTH: 120 min. VID#: 18.109

LENT AND EASTER

ADVENT: A TIME TO HOPE

SPEAKER: Dr. Kathleen Chesto PUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications (1990)
Family activities, such as Christmas shopping and card writing, reveal a spirituality that can teach us about Advent. We live in a hectic world, and Christmas is a busy time, but God calls us from within this world to witness to the presence of Christ. Family life can provide signs and symbols of hope as we wait for the coming of the Kingdom of God. LENGTH: 20 min. VID#: 18A.202

THE ANGEL'S ADVENT LESSON

SPEAKER: Gwen Costello PUBLISHER: Twenty Third Publications, 1995
Danny is happily making out his Christmas list - adding more and more toys and games - when his Guardian Angel, Theophane, suddenly appears. It is very obvious to Theo that Danny has forgotten the real meaning of Christmas. Together they review practices like the Advent wreath, reciting daily prayers at home and doing daily acts of kindness. Does Danny have a change of heart? Does he remember that Jesus is the reason for the Christmas Season? Is he happy or sad with Theo's message? GUIDE. LENGTH: 11 min. VID#: 18A.203

THE SONGS OF CHRISTMAS

PUBLISHED: Franciscan Communications

The Songs of Christmas is an hour-long special for the entire family. It is a classic video that beautifully dramatizes the birth of the most familiar Christmas songs. Joyce Bulifant, who stars in this video, introduces the special with a warm, personal reflection on the meaning of Christmas carols. Where did the songs come from? What messages do they bring us from the times and places in which they were created? And why do they still have the power to move us today? The Songs of Christmas, more than just another musical/variety special, explore these questions dramatically - with imagination, humour and wonderful music. Musical classics include: Silent Night, I Heard the Bells, O Holy Night, O Christmas Tree, Jolly Old St. Nicholas. This is a perfect way for families to get into the Christmas spirit and to brush up on their Christmas carolling. LENGTH: 49 min. VID#: 18A.216

A CHRISTMAS WISH

Little Justice just can't wait... she wishes Christmas would come right away. There's a surprise in store, though, when her wish comes true, for it doesn't turn out exactly as she had hoped. In the end she discovers that the time of preparation increases the joy of Christmas. The story stresses the importance of Advent as a season of anticipation and preparation. Ideal for both classroom and home use. GUIDE. LENGTH: 9 min. VID#: 18A.217

ADVENT WITH SAINT NICHOLAS: Customs from Around the World

Ten-year-old Holly arrives home from religion class eager to enter a contest about the meaning of Advent. While she tries to tell her family about it, they are too caught up in worry and banter about the details of Christmas preparation to listen. Later that day Holly sits at the computer, feeling discouraged. Suddenly a surprise visitor appears - St. Nicholas! An engaging live action story. GUIDE. LENGTH: 12 min. VID#; 18A.218

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS CRIB

St. Anthony Messenger Press

A Story of St. Francis of Assisi. On the eve of Christmas in the year 1223, Francis of Assisi, with the help of some friends, recreated the nativity scene in a cave near Greccio, Italy. A simple hay-filled manger, and an ox and ass, were all the saint used to evoke the poverty and humility of Christ's birth. After the death of Francis, the custom of the Christmas crib spread around the world. Today every culture touched by Christianity expressed the mystery of Christmas in settings and figures unique to that place and its people. LENGTH: 12 min. VID#: 18A.219

HolyWeek: The Triduum

PRESENTER: Rev. Murray Kroetsch

Non-professionally produced

Diocesan workshop held January 17, 1987. Father Murray discusses the Mystery of Lent: beginning with an understanding of the Paschal Mystery; our baptismal incorporation into Christ, and that all liturgy celebrates the Paschal Mystery. Then he speaks about each of the three days of Holy Week: Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday. VID # 14.702 (2 copies)

Celebrating the Seasons: Advent/Christmas

PRESENTER: various members of the Liturgical Com.

Non-professionally produced

Diocesan workshop held November 12, 1988. Some use of slides were also used. Only two of the sessions are presented here: Environment and Creativity: presented by Sister Wanda MacDonald and Sister Gayle Desarmia; Proclamation of the Advent/Christmas Readings by Mary Pat Byrne. Parish Liturgy Committees will find much here to help them prepare for the Season—symbols and customs of the season, ideas for creating banners and other aspects of the environment. Lectors will also profit from the explanation of the connectedness of the various Sundays of the Advent/Christmas Season and a better understanding of the various readings. VID # 14.703
