

ANNOUNCEMENT:

“Can the Laity save the Church : a modest proposal”... Dr. Michael Higgins, current Distinguished Professor of Catholic Thought, at Sacred Heart University, Connecticut, and former President of St. Thomas University, will deliver a message on 20th century personalities who helped shape the Church of today, the current challenges facing it, and the laity’s role in shaping its future. Looking to the models of Cardinal John Henry Newman, and Fr. Henri Nouwen, he will present an argument for a new model of pastoral practice. Free presentation.

Sat., Oct. 19th 9:30 AM, Msgr. Boyd Family Center.
