Dear Parents of First Holy Communion Children,

Blessings to you and your loved ones. As you are aware Covid-19 has disrupted all of our lives, most especially our precious children.

Some of you have inquired where your son/daughter stand regarding the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion that they would have received in May of this year.

Hopefully in the early fall Catechism classes will resume and the children can pick up where they left off in their sacramental preparation. Once they are adequately prepared more specific information and dates can be provided.

You are all in my thoughts and prayers in this difficult times. God will see us through this soon.

May we reflect through the word of God:

"Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it."
(Proverbs 22:6)

Thanks for your understanding and remain blessed in the Lord.

Your Pastor,

Fr. Charles Udeh SMMM.
