GOSPEL MEDITATION

Active and contemplative. At work and at rest. These are dynamics we all face in our lives and, if we're honest, we might not always balance perfectly! In this Sunday's Gospel, our daily tensions play out in two sisters. Mary "sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak." Martha, on the other hand, is "burdened with much serving." This, as it turns out, is not necessarily "the better part."

All of us reading this have some sort of labor we engage in. We have different trades or careers. We have responsibilities as family members, some of which may take up most of our time. In the time of Scripture, showing hospitality to guests was one of the most important values in society. Our work is important. Jesus himself spent decades as a carpenter. So what's the problem with Martha? Martha is burdened, anxious, and worried. Not only that, but she resents her sister's choice. "Tell her to help me," she demands of Jesus. How easy it is to get very busy doing good things. We need to provide for our families and plan for retirement. We need to make sure children are clothed, fed, and educated. Our committees, ministries, and sports schedules need to stay on track. However, without a balance of work with rest, without contemplation in the midst of our action, we will miss the point. While many parts are required for our life in the world to function, the better part is our relationship with God. This week, make time in your busy schedule to sit at Jesus' feet. Maybe this is 20 minutes with Scripture, participating in a daily Mass, or a quiet walk alone in the park. Receive what Christ wants to speak to you.

ROAR!

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Kids and parents, sign up now for this summer's fun and unique ROAR! Vacation Bible School adventure!

Being held from 9:30 AM - 12:30 PM, August 12-16, at St. Martha, ROAR! is the "mane" event for our parish kids this summer! This epic African adventure engages the whole herd. At Roar! kids four and older explore God's goodness and celebrate a ferocious faith that powers them through this wild life. ROAR! is filled with incredible Bible-learning experiences kids see, hear, touch, and even taste! "Sciency-Fun" gizmos, team-building games, cool Bible songs, and tasty treats are just a few of the stand-out activities that help faith flow into real life. Plus, we'll help kids discover how to see evidence of God in everyday life —something we call God Sightings, and each child will have the opportunity to participate in a meaningful service project. Registrations are required by August 5th, and may be picked up at both church offices, or downloaded from our parish website, www.holyspiritme.org (click on the "Formation" tab). For more information, contact Carolyn Houston at 985-6252, 646-5605 or carolyn.houston@portlanddiocese.org.

It takes place at St. Martha Church in Kennebunk on Wednesdays. There is a choice of attending either a morning or evening session.
