PROGRAM INFORMATION:

The home is the first place a disciple is formed, so the Church refers to the Catholic family as the Domestic Church. Since Vatican II, there has been a renewed emphasis on the importance and dignity of the Domestic Church as "islands of Christian life in an unbelieving world" (Catechism, 1655). At Holy Spirit parish, faith formation programs exist to assist and support parents in their duty to pass on the light of faith to their children. The Diocese of Portland has instituted guidelines and requirements that the parish has incorporated into the faith formation options.

The High school program will consist of weekly "Mass & Meet" classes that will take place in the fall semester at St. Martha from 10am – 11:45am.* The location and time of class meetings for the spring semester will be decided on by the group/parents in December. Class will include Mass as a group and a snack. Retreat, service and social opportunities on the parish and diocesan level will be available throughout the year as permitted by pandemic restrictions.
