NACEPF has been committed to the mission of serving homeless mothers and children for the past four years with generous matching grants which have enabled Holy Family Home to be the premier shelter of its kind in the New England region and beyond. The doubling of all donations made, will help Holy Family Home to continue its ministry of providing temporary shelter for families struggling to stay together while permanent housing is sought. Moreover, Holy Family Home provides a unique program for its residents to help them with issues that families may need to deal with such as time management, child development, positive parenting, housing, personal goal setting, bedtime routines, job interviews, creating a resume, and legal issues related to housing and employment. Skilled volunteers organize sessions with the mothers which involve group discussions, videos, role-playing and guest presentations. A full page add appeared recently in the "Rhode Island Catholic" requesting donations to be made by checks payable to "HOLY FAMILY HOME" and on the memo line inserting "NACEPF Match" and mailed to Holy Family Home, c/o 5 Gibbs Street, North Providence, RI 02904. Sunday Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Most goodbyes bear more than a touch of melancholy. There seems to be so much pain in the process. We’ve all seen on TV the tearful hugs and kisses exchanged when a young soldier takes leave of family and friends before boarding the plane that will take him or her to faraway assignments. Tomorrow, Memorial Day, we will honor all those heroic men and women who said goodbye and went off to war but never came back. There are countless other necessary goodbyes in our lives, perhaps less stressful but always marked by sadness. Somehow when they have to happen as part of our lives we wish otherwise. You could say that they give us one more reason to “scold Adam and Eve” for their misbehavior! Somehow we know that such things were not part of the original scheme of things. Yet not all goodbyes are all bad, even if a bit sad. Children have to leave their parents so that they can live out their own dreams and the adventure of life. For friends who must separate from us it is the same. A worthy consolation is the fact that such absences make our hearts grow fonder.

In this weekend’s Gospel, we learn that Jesus had to leave His chosen Twelve. We also know His leaving has a kind of “mission accomplished” ring to it. Since the evangelists have no interest in the kind of biographical details and the emotions we search for in a modern biography, we have to use our imaginations. Surely the Apostles had to be somewhat downhearted about their Master’s departure. They were only human, after all.

Our Lord told them the news in a straight from the shoulder way, and added that if their love for Him was real, it would only be proven if they rejoiced that He was going to the Father. Rejoiced? That seemed at first to be so contradictory.

But the Lord’s leaving them physically had at least two beneficial effects. First, they would be able to realize their full potential as Christ’s emissaries. Second, it would bring about the arrival of the Paraclete, the Holy Spirit. He in turn would enlighten them further all that Jesus’ coming meant for the world. He would be there to guide them in confronting the problems of their own time as Jesus would had He stayed. This, by the way, is still the role the Holy Spirit plays in the life of Church today.

Admittedly, we are living through one of the most crisis-laden periods of the Church’s long march through history. There seems to be no end to the reports of abuse perpetrated by clergy of all ranks against victims of both sexes and all ages. What to make of it all? Some, like Pope Francis, have considered it as a period of cleansing. Others call it the preparation for a new way of “being Church.” Certainly if the Eucharist is the “source and summit” of the Church’s life, then we will always have it, and the priests to offer it. We may be called upon to say “goodbye” to certain long-established elements in Church life. But in the meantime, we can still rejoice in the unchangeable fact of the resurrection, and Our Lord’s promise that He will be with us “all days.” Nothing of goodbye there. (continued)

At one time the Duke of Cambridge is reported to have said: “Any change at any time for any reason is to be deplored.” That sounds like the saying “Come weal, come woe, my status is quo,” an attitude that can be deadly in a church, when overdone. Thankfully, the Church is not a museum but a dynamic living Body that says “Hello” to each new day!

AROUND THE DIOCESE

PRO-LIFE SPRING ROSARY NOVENA

Please join Servants of Christ for Life on nine consecutive Saturday mornings from April 27 to June 22 for the spring Rosary Novena. We will gather at Holy Ghost Church, 472 Atwells Ave, Providence, for Mass at 8:00 AM and then meet in front of Planned Parenthood, 175 Broad St, Providence, to pray the Rosary at approximately 8:30 AM. Every week at this Planned Parenthood location thirty innocent children are killed in the womb. As St. Padre Pio said, "Prayer is the best weapon we have; it is the key to God’s heart.” All are welcome to attend and offer up this time in prayer for an end to abortion. Please join us for as many weeks as you can, whether for Mass, the Rosary, or both. Contact Monica at monica700@verizon.net or Tyler Rowley at 401-290-7201 with any questions.

RHODE ISLAND STATE RIGHT TO LIFE COMMITTEE

ABORTION EXPANSION BILL

They are lying to you. Under false pretenses, some local media outlets have joined abortion extremists and unscrupulous politicians to push a New York-style abortion expansion bill here in Rhode Island.

They falsely claim it is needed to keep abortion legal. But the uncontested fact is that regulation and availability of abortion in Rhode Island does not automatically change even if Roe v Wade is someday overturned.

They falsely claim it maintains the status quo. But expert legal analysis verifies it goes way beyond, and would make Rhode Island a haven for virtually unregulated abortions, even late-term abortions. They falsely claim it has broad support. But three separate polls have found the majority of Rhode Islanders do not support their extreme abortion agenda. Visit notinRI.com for details and to tell the Senate to stand fast against intimidation and harassment by abortion extremists.

Please visit www.notinri.com for more information

DIVORCED? SEPARATED?

Estimada comunidad de San Eduardo:
Mi nombre es Francis E. Guevara y soy una servidora de la parroquia como ya muchos de ustedes lo saben. Me dirijo a ustedes para informarles que, desde el 1ro de Junio 2019, asumí la posición de Coordinadora de Evangelización, a través de la cual estaré ayudando y colaborando con el Padre Nolasco con los diferentes ministerios de la parroquia.
Les quiero compartir una pequeña reseña de mi vida parroquial y personal. Desde hace 14 años, mi familia y yo asistimos a la parroquia de San Eduardo y somos miembros activos de la comunidad. Mi esposo, junto con nuestros hijos participamos en el coro parroquial desde nuestra llegada a la comunidad de San Eduardo. Yo soy parte del comité parroquial y desde hace más de un año y medio dirijo el Grupo Juvenil junto a dos servidores más, Lourdes y Jorge. Además, después de haber vivido el retiro “Cámbiame a Mi Señor” en el 2005, fui invitada a ser parte del equipo de mujeres y actualmente sirvo en el retiro dos veces al año. Gracias a nuestro Señor Jesús, y la guía de nuestro líder espiritual, el Padre Nolasco, mi fe cada día ha ido aumentando, la cual ha sido base fundamental para mi crecimiento espiritual y personal.
Hace un par de semanas, terminé mi carrera como Trabajadora Social, y me da mucha alegría poder poner mis conocimientos y habilidades aprendidas al servicio de nuestra comunidad. Mis expectativas para con la comunidad es poder integrar y fortalecer los diferentes ministerios para que todos podamos trabajar en conjunto en la evangelización de la comunidad. Además, poder motivar aun más a los fieles a que se involucren activamente en los ministerios existentes y/o ayudar a iniciar otros ministerios parroquiales.
De antemano, gracias a todos por el trabajo que juntos vamos a realizar como comunidad integral y por su apoyo en esta nueva labor como coordinadora de evangelización parroquial. Que nuestro Señor Jesucristo resucitado derrame bendiciones sobre cada uno de ustedes.

Francis Romero
