NACEPF, NORTH AMERICAN CATHOLIC EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING FOUNDATION Inc., a Lay Catholic Entity founded by John and Barbara Primeau, has announced that through Pentecost Sunday it will match up to $250,000 in donations made to HOLY FAMILY HOME. NACEPF has been committed to the mission of serving homeless mothers and children for the past four years with generous matching grants which have enabled Holy Family Home to be the premier shelter of its kind in the New England region and beyond. The doubling of all donations made, will help Holy Family Home to continue its ministry of providing temporary shelter for families struggling to stay together while permanent housing is sought. Moreover, Holy Family Home provides a unique program for its residents to help them with issues that families may need to deal with such as time management, child development, positive parenting, housing, personal goal setting, bedtime routines, job interviews, creating a resume, and legal issues related to housing and employment. Skilled volunteers organize sessions with the mothers which involve group discussions, videos, role-playing and guest presentations. A full page add appeared recently in the “Rhode Island Catholic” requesting donations to be made by checks payable to “HOLY FAMILY HOME” and on the memo line inserting “NACEPF Match” and mailed to Holy Family Home, c/o 5 Gibbs Street, North Providence, RI 02904. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.
Sunday Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

“If you talk to a man in a language he understands, that goes to his head. If you talk to him in his language, that goes to his heart.” These words of the late Nelson Mandela have a particular relevance to this weekend’s great feast of Pentecost. For Pentecost is mostly about language, and what the Holy Spirit did with it to launch a Church. Our Church. So rightly do we think of it as the birthday of the Church. Ordinary men were chosen beforehand for an extraordinary mission. Now they were given one of their primary tools to speak to the world about a man who happened to be God in the flesh.

They knew, and we know from the Gospel that this God-Man, Our Lord Jesus Christ, spoke forcefully and prayed intently for unity among peoples. So it must have come as no surprise, once they stepped back from their initial amazement at the method, to recognize it as the Holy Spirit’s way of supporting their mission and encouraging their faith.

Now we moderns know the power of language. In a world suddenly grown smaller from what it was, say 20 or even 10 years ago with the arrival of electronic wizardry, language is still our basic tool of communication. The linguistic arts, in writing and storytelling still are our most popular form of entertainment. But there is another side to language, aside from its slips into slang, that has the power to destroy unity. That is softening the reality, to the point that inhumane activities go unchecked. One widespread example: the use of the words “pro choice” to hide “pro murder of the unborn.”

There is another softening device, if you will, that involves using so-called “modal verbs” like “would, could or might” to create a little distance between your honest and true strong opinion and your choice of words to express yourself. It comes with a hope that your listeners will be more receptive to what you say.

Nowhere in His discourse did Jesus turn to such words. In fact, His very directness repeatedly got Him in trouble. That is why, in our politically over sensitive context, the mere mention of His name is off putting for so many people. His Church and her teaching suffer the same disdain.

So here we are at the great feast of Pentecost, hearing again about the marvelous event that started it all. If we really pay attention, this task of the apostles that began with a touch of the spectacular is nonetheless our task as well. In our ordinary circumstances, we are to be proclaimers of Christ. No matter what our native language is. We take courage from what St. Paul writes to the Corinthians, namely “to each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.”

Yet we have to be careful and wise. Many believers who would share Christ have more zeal than knowledge and offend more than they communicate. You may have heard of the barber who was newly saved and was eager to witness to his experience with Jesus Christ. (continued)

As he met his first customer the next day, he was sharpening his straight razor on the leather strap. His initial approach to his customer was, “Are you ready to die?” One can imagine what went through the customer’s mind as he viewed the finely honed razor. As the cliche goes, “If we don’t use tact, we may lose contact.”

AROUND THE DIOCESE

PRO-LIFE SPRING ROSARY NOVENA

Please join Servants of Christ for Life on nine consecutive Saturday mornings from April 27 to June 22 for the spring Rosary Novena. We will gather at Holy Ghost Church, 472 Atwells Ave, Providence, for Mass at 8:00 AM and then meet in front of Planned Parenthood, 175 Broad St, Providence, to pray the Rosary at approximately 8:30 AM. Every week at this Planned Parenthood location thirty innocent children are killed in the womb. As St. Padre Pio said, "Prayer is the best weapon we have; it is the key to God's heart." All are welcome to attend and offer up this time in prayer for an end to abortion. Please join us for as many weeks as you can, whether for Mass, the Rosary, or both. Contact Monica at monica700@verizon.net or Tyler Rowley at 401-290-7201 with any questions.

RHODE ISLAND STATE RIGHT TO LIFE COMMITTEE

ABORTION EXPANSION BILL

They are lying to you. Under false pretenses, some local media outlets have joined abortion extremists and unscrupulous politicians to push a New York-style abortion expansion bill here in Rhode Island.

They falsely claim it is needed to keep abortion legal. But the uncontested fact is that regulation and availability of abortion in Rhode Island does not automatically change even if Roe v Wade is someday overturned.

They falsely claim it maintains the status quo. But expert legal analysis verifies it goes way beyond, and would make Rhode Island a haven for virtually unregulated abortions, even late-term abortions. They falsely claim it has broad support. But three separate polls have found the majority of Rhode Islanders do not support their extreme abortion agenda. Visit notinRI.com for details and to tell the Senate to stand fast against intimidation and harassment by abortion extremists. Please visit www.notinri.com for more information.

DIVORCED? SEPARATED?

This group meets the first and third Wednesday evening of each month from 7:00pm-8:30pm. If you are interested, please contact Peter Magnotta at 421-7833, ext. 217.

Estamos invitando a todos los vecinos del sector y de las comunidades circundantes de nuestras casas, para que vengan al templo a ponerle una veladora al Santísimo y para que nos mantenga unidos. Lo haremos sábado en la noche y todo el domingo como el año pasado.

Estoy contando con la ayuda de todos como siempre. Desde vender boletas de la rifa, hasta colaborando en el armado de las carpas, sirviendo comida, etc. Seamos maestros en la CORRESPONSABILIDAD.
