Dear Parishioners,

Our 41st Annual Saint Anthony Feast was a great success last week with fabulous entertainment, delicious Italian and other kinds of food, along with popular amusements and rides. With preparations taking place weeks in advance, plans were carefully made even to the smallest detail. The only variable which can never be controlled, of course, is the weather. This year after a wetter than usual spring we were fortunate to have beautiful days of sunshine and low humidity. It was encouraging to see so many of our tri-parish community attending, and who were most supportive and ready to work together. The Grand Raffle was special this year to mark the 75th Anniversary of Saint Anthony Church with extra tickets available for a larger grand prize. We were about 30 tickets shy of a complete sell-out and that was a record. The Pot-of-Gold paid out a $523 prize too. Congratulations to the winners whose names are published below! The Flea Market was a great success also with leftovers donated to the Salvation Army. I am so grateful to the many who volunteered before, during and after the event and especially the men of the Holy Name Society for dismantling the setup on Sunday night. We are in process of compiling expenses before a final determination can be made but I’m cautiously optimistic that you will be pleased with the net profit. Our tri-parish ministries to the hungry and homeless will benefit from the event. Once again I am very grateful for your generous support of the Special Feast Donors and the Banners. This weekend we wish all our fathers a very blessed Fathers’ Day as we remember them especially in our prayers. May God bless your week!

Father Ed

CONGRATULATIONS TO ANDREA AIELLO

We extend our congratulations to one of our parishioners, Andrea Aiello, who was awarded the teacher’s Golden Apple Award in May, 2019. Andrea is a grade 3 teacher at Lincoln Central Elementary School. In addition, she has previously been awarded two teacher’s Crystal Apple Awards for her excellence in teaching, one at Lonsdale Elementary School in Lincoln and the other again at Lincoln Central. Andrea completed her religious education formation here at Anthony Church and continued on assisting us as a volunteer catechist in our summer and fall classes for our young children. Andrea is a motivative, creative teacher, and her talents have been recognized by receiving these awards. We are very proud of Andrea's accomplishments at such an early stage in her teaching career and may our Lord continue to bless and guide her with her future students.

NACEPF, NORTH AMERICAN CATHOLIC EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING FOUNDATION Inc., a Lay Catholic Entity founded by John and Barbara Primeau, has announced that through Pentecost Sunday it will match up to $250,000 in donations made to HOLY FAMILY HOME. NACEPF has been committed to the mission of serving homeless mothers and children for the past four years with generous matching grants which have enabled Holy Family Home to be the premier shelter of its kind in the New England region and beyond. The doubling of all donations made, will help Holy Family Home to continue its ministry of providing temporary shelter for families struggling to stay together while permanent housing is sought. Moreover, Holy Family Home provides a unique program for its residents to help them with issues that families may need to deal with such as time management, child development, positive parenting, housing, personal goal setting, bedtime routines, job interviews, creating a resume, and legal issues related to housing and employment. Skilled volunteers organize sessions with the mothers which involve group discussions, videos, role-playing and guest presentations. A full page add appeared recently in the "Rhode Island Catholic" requesting donations to be made by checks payable to “HOLY FAMILY HOME” and on the memo line inserting “NACEPF Match” and mailed to Holy Family Home, c/o 5 Gibbs Street, North Providence, RI 02904. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.
Sunday Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

If you stroll through a bookstore, or scroll through a book list, you will inevitably find a long list of what are called “self-improvement” books. Google alone provides a list of six types. There are books for self-confidence; self-help, self-love, self-growth, self-improvement and self-esteem. I have to conclude from this variety of offerings that a lot of people are walking around with deep concern over their perceived failure, or at least worrisome weakness in the matter of living life fully.

Of course, for me as a believer in God the Father, Jesus Christ His only Son, and the Holy Spirit, I need only turn to the Bible for the answers to all those areas of concern. I can declare with the utmost confidence because I believe that the co-author of Holy Scripture is God, who has chosen to work through the human writers. I also hold that the discernment of the Church, guided by the Holy Spirit, is the deciding factor as to which books belong in the collection.

One doesn’t have to go very deeply into the teachings of Christ until we learn the mind-blowing truth about God. One that we would never conclude on our own: that our one God is a community of three Persons. These same three are distinct but equal and Jesus names them “the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.”

There is no sense trying to comprehend this truth in its fullness because that is beyond the ability of our finite minds. After all, God by nature is the Supreme Being, the absolute “Other” from us. A much more spiritually profitable exercise is to tackle the question of why Jesus told us this in the first place. As with so much of what He taught us about God and prayer, the answer lies in His love for us.

All of us at one time or another in our lives have loved someone. Leaving family aside as automatic, just turn to friends. Initially they know very little about us. But in pursuing the relationship, we want them to know us inside and out as time goes by. We in effect say to them: “This is who I am.” Jesus tells us the same thing, despite His knowing from the outset that we will never fully know the Infinite One.

Putting all this into the context of the current cultural buzzword, God wants to be “transparent.” He wants us to know the kind of God with whom we are relating. This Trinity is what God is. It follows that we can benefit so much from an authentic and deep relationship with Him based on mutual love.

So we celebrate, venerate and advocate for this revealed mystery on this solemn feast day. Fuller speculation about what the Trinity means is the task primarily of theologians. For the rest of us, the main point Jesus wanted to make is that God’s love for us is so deep and rich that we don’t need to turn to any self-help library. We realize from the truth of the divine Trinity what God really wants to be for us: Someone we can love and know. Or, to put into other words, He wants us to know Him like an open book.

PRO-LIFE SPRING ROSARY NOVENA - FINAL WEEK

Several of our parishioners have been able to join up to 50 other participants and Servants of Christ for Life for this important nine-week Novena. Please plan to attend whether for Mass, the Rosary, or both, and offer up this time in prayer for an end to abortion. Your prayers and participation are needed now more than ever! RHODE ISLAND STATE RIGHT TO LIFE COMMITTEE

ABORTION EXPANSION BILL

They are lying to you. Under false pretenses, some local media outlets have joined abortion extremists and unscrupulous politicians to push a New York-style abortion expansion bill here in Rhode Island. They falsely claim it is needed to keep abortion legal. But the uncontested fact is that regulation and availability of abortion in Rhode Island does not automatically change even if Roe v Wade is someday overturned.

They falsely claim it maintains the status quo. But expert legal analysis verifies it goes way beyond, and would make Rhode Island a haven for virtually unregulated abortions, even late-term abortions.

They falsely claim it has broad support. But three separate polls have found the majority of Rhode Islanders do not support their extreme abortion agenda. Visit notinri.com for details and to tell the Senate to stand fast against intimidation and harassment by abortion extremists.

Please visit www.notinri.com for more information
