A PRAYER FOR HEALING VICTIMS OF ABUSE

God of endless love, ever caring, ever strong, always present, always just: You gave your only Son to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them. Soothe their restless hearts with hope, steady their shaken spirits with faith. Grant them justice for their cause, enlightened by your truth.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people’s wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness. Grant us the courage and wisdom, humility and grace, to act with justice. Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors. Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Recently two large cartons filled with all kinds of school supplies, children’s toys, games and summer clothing were sent to the village of El Rosario. Our first visit there three years ago with new sneakers and other items for the children made a lasting impression and was a beginning. When a little boy asked his teacher if he would be forgotten after our mission team returned home to North Providence a continual effort has been made to improve the quality of early education there. A playground was constructed in the area where the children played on used tires partially buried in the dirt ground. A new kitchen was added to the school building in the location were an outdoor fireplace was used to prepare food for the children when it was available. The bathrooms were improved and a concrete patio was installed in front of the small three room school. The children are sent on a class trip every October to the city zoo in Guatemala City for which they look forward. Many other improvements were made because of the generous support of our parishioners. As a result the enrollment has increased because the parents have confidence that their children are in an environment more conducive to learning. Moreover the parents of that poor village are very grateful that we care about them, that Americans, parishioners of Saint Anthony and Presentation Churches want to help their children get a good education so they can have a future in their country. Thanks again to all who have made this outreach to El Rosario possible.

IN APPRECIATION
Special thank you to Peter Imondi and nephew Nicholas Penta for the beautiful flowers which they planted in front of Presentation Church. They were assisted by Peter’s sister Dawn Penta and their father Pat of Imondi Florists who designed the garden and donated the flowers. We are so grateful to the Imondi and Pascale families for the generous gift of floral arrangements for both Presentation and Saint Anthony sanctuaries on weekends when funeral pieces are lacking. Our parishes are so blessed by this exemplary Christian stewardship!
The news came to me bunched together with an assortment of insignificant emails. My priest classmate had died. What a shock it was! He had been a generally jolly person who sat across the aisle of the seminary classroom from me for eight years. Like me, he went on from our initial assignments as parish assistant priests (now curiously known as “parochial vicars”) to more specialized jobs. He as a prison chaplain and yours truly as a high school teacher. In his case, the new task did not seem such a good fit. But he made it work. So well did he ply his task that he eventually rose to become chief of prison chaplains for my home state of Pennsylvania. In that foolishness we fall into, the shock most likely came because God’s plan did not coincide with my own.

Our Scriptures this weekend speak to us of three different matters. First the focus is on faith; then of waiting, and finally of vigilance. There comes a point in life when gray hair usually arrives, combined with news of the deaths of friends that forces us to be more cognizant of matters like our own death. It is a whole different outlook that was never a part of our youth. The questions then arise as to how one is to maintain a youthful outlook in faith, and how one is to be vigilant about it. It seems to me that not only is youth not a matter of birthday count but also that it is a state of mind. I have known pessimists who seem to have died at 35, and optimists who remain so well into their 80’s.

Our basically joy-based faith comes from the resurrected Jesus, still very much alive, and not in any way a prisoner of time. When He told His Apostles that He would be with them until the end of time, and certainly that includes you and me here in our time, then the only choice we have is to be sure in our faith, and glad of it. As for vigilance, that certainly implies a certain attitude toward the material things of this world that frees us from being beholden to them. From overvaluing them. From identifying our self-worth with them. Certainly our vigilance is not to adopt a maudlin attitude. If the phrase “If I live that long” appears frequently in our conversation that is a signal to me that one has lost the taste for life, much less the gusto needed to enjoy it. Each new morning is either appreciated or not. How we say the words “O God, it’s morning” gives us away.

We hear Jesus say today “Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.” What a put down of our worst enemy at times, namely fear. Fear is the antithesis of the Gospel. It should have no place in a Christian’s heart. Once upon a time a boy and his father were traveling in a car when a bee flew through the open window. The boy was so highly allergic to bee stings that he and his father knew that his life was in danger. As the boy frantically jumped around and tried to avoid the agitated bee, the father calmly reached out and grabbed the bee. When he opened his hand, the bee began to fly again terrifying the boy once more. The father then said, “Look, son,” holding up a hand with an implanted stinger, “his stinger is gone; he can’t hurt you any longer.” As a bee loses its stinger when it stings, death lost its sting when it STUNG Jesus. Amen.
