UPDATE ON SAINT ANTHONY CHURCH REPAIRS

As of this past week work was completed by the Lombardi Construction Company on rebuilding the upper exterior east wall of the church. Interior wall was reinforced and concrete capstones repositioned and the area was repointed where needed and power-washed. What remains is repairs on the lower roofline over the concrete capstones. Plywood will be replaced and gutter area resurfaced. An electric heating cable will also be installed to prevent ice buildup in the gutters which was the main cause of the problem over the years. That damage was further sustained by the cypress trees, now removed, that prevented the sun from doing its job. Work continues on the lower southern and western walls which will be power-washed and repointed. New granite curbing will also be added along the western side of the church. The extent of this necessary work will probably delay landscaping until the spring. Your patience is appreciated for any inconvenience with parking and accessibility.

RELIGIOUS FORMATION OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH

The registration for families with children is underway for the fall classes. There is serious concern for the spiritual welfare of our children especially during these times of cultural change wherein religion has lost its place in American Society for many people. The number of crimes committed by young people, especially the recent mass shootings, challenge the Church to continue to make every effort to provide opportunities for our children and youth to mold their identity around the Gospel of Jesus Christ which stands against hatred, racism and the many social ills that plague our society. When a person’s center is not built upon divine truth they can be misled along a false path leading to unhappiness and even self-destruction. The rampant materialism that surrounds out children can be toxic without a relationship with Jesus Christ which every responsible parent can facilitate. Every parent makes a promise to raise their children in the Catholic Faith on the day of their child’s Baptism. Commitment to the religious education programs that we offer is one way of fulfilling this obligation along with regular Mass attendance. Home study can be an option if the class schedule is a major obstacle. But to withdraw a child after they receive First Communion in the second grade is a grave injustice to that child. We encourage all parents and other family members to ensure the continuity of a child’s faith formation through the programs and opportunities offered at Saint Anthony Church for our tri-parish community.
The publication of these statistics derive from a larger report that the Diocese has made to the Vatican in preparation for the visit that the bishops will make this fall. The Diocese of Providence is experiencing a quantitative decline as numbers of ordained priests, registered parishioners, Sunday Mass attendees, faithful receiving the sacraments and students in Catholic education have all fallen significantly in recent years. This decline is not unique to this diocese but common to other dioceses in our part of the world and to other faith communities as well. But the Catholic Church is still the largest and most impactful faith community in the state and responsible for many good and positive things despite what the less numbers indicate. Every week we will disclose the results of the research. These numbers were compiled by the information which every parish reports to the diocese annually.

“Popular wisdom” is often an oxymoron. Such is the case with something called “Short man syndrome.” There is no medical or psychological foundation for the term, but it’s used a lot. Sometimes it gets an historical nod, being called “Napoleon complex.” The stereotypical “victims” of the condition are the short people among us, whom in today’s lingo might be called “vertically challenged.” Because of their missing height, such people are said to be overly aggressive and are likely to do a lot of shouting and loud talking. They do this allegedly to seek attention. They often maintain strong opinions about things, so eager are they to prove themselves. You get the idea. You may even know somebody like that.

We know nothing of the famous short fellow Zaccheus other than what St, Luke tells us, so we cannot categorize him as one of the above. We do know he held the worst job in town. He made his money working for the hated Romans as one of their tax collectors. We can be sure that he was ostracized by the Jewish townspeople. He was likely often alone at night when others might be dining out, or otherwise socializing. Today we might call him “marginalized.” That would be enough right there to have him show up on Our Lord’s “radar.”

So Jesus does spot Zaccheus, half hiding up there in that sycamore tree just waiting for a glance of the Man of wonder that he might not otherwise have the chance to see, much less meet. But is he ever in for the surprise of his life! For the Lord looks up, likely with a kind smile on His handsome face, and with a wave of His strong arm, urges Zaccheus to come on down. Not only that, He tells the poor little rich man that He’d like to dine that evening at his home! Was there a word equivalent to “Wow” that Zaccheus said? We can only guess.

Obviously we have no video of this scene, but you have to imagine the looks of shock on the faces of the townspeople gathered around who heard the rabbi, the one they call “Master,” just say that He is going to “that one’s” house to eat? Unbelievable!!” Of course, that’s precisely Jesus’ point. God can be unbelievable at times with His decisions. Here Jesus, the “sign of contradiction” chooses to reach out to this little social leper who had climbed up so that Jesus could reach out. Come to think of it, that is precisely what Jesus is always doing to us: reaching out. No matter our bodily height. He came among us to end this separation from our best self, the one attuned to God.

Alienation from God takes many forms. Not always dramatic, much less the stuff of novels. Sometimes it is so subtle that we miss it. Or we catch what’s happening but refuse to admit there is a problem. For example, take the use of coarse language. It is disrespectful of the person(s) who hear it. That is to say also that it is irreverent of a part of God’s creation. It may even give scandal to “little ones,” by that I mean children. Such speech can also be a thinly veiled form of violence. And certainly it would make us most uncomfortable in the presence of Jesus. The same holds true for racial slurs. Or deliberately ignoring the speed limit on the road. Having little tolerance for another’s unintentional mistake. A little too much to drink too often. Little lies now and then. None of these are earth-shaking, but each tears down the ideals set for us at Baptism, and the promises we made at our Confirmation.

We don’t know whether or not Zaccheus bragged about his visitor and that wonderful supper he enjoyed with Him. But boasting is one of those forms of pride that not only violates humility but also can backfire on us. A newly promoted Army colonel moved into his new and impressive office. As he sat behind his new big desk, a private knocked at his door. “Just a minute,” the colonel said, “I’m on the phone.” He picked up the phone and said loudly, “Yes sir, General, I’ll call the President this afternoon. No sir, I won’t forget.” Then he hung up the phone and told the private to come in. “What can I help you with?” the colonel asked. “Well, sir, the private replied, “I’ve come to hook up your phone.”
El Papa Francisco comienza la Exhortación Apostólica Postsinodal "Christus vivit". Él es nuestra esperanza y la juventud más hermosa de este mundo. Todo lo que toca se hace joven, se hace nuevo, se llena de vida. Por lo tanto, las primeras palabras que quiero dirigir a cada joven cristiano son: ¡Él vive y te quiere vivo!". ¿QUÉ ES LA VIRTUD DE LA GRATITUD?

Es tomar conciencia de los dones que recibimos cada día, a valorar la generosidad del que nos los da y a mover nuestra voluntad para corresponder a estos dones, aprovecharlos, desarrollarlos y ponerlos al servicio de los demás.

CÓMO FOMENTAR LA GRATITUD DIARIAMENTE?
- Fijarse en las cosas buenas y en lo bueno de las personas.
- Reconocer todo lo bueno que tenemos y somos, y poner todo lo que está de nuestra parte para ser mejores.
- Elegir siempre lo que nos hace más feliz para vivirlo.
- Cuidar los dones recibidos. No desperdiciarlos ni usarlos mal.
- Saber dar las gracias y demostrarlo con gestos y acciones, sobre todo a los que tengan más.

VIVIENDO LA GRATITUD EN CASA

1. Dar siempre las gracias por todo con una sonrisa, aunque sea por cosas aparentemente pequeñas y sin importancia.
2. No desperdiciar los dones: comida, agua, energía eléctrica, etcetera.
3. Agradecer por los alimentos.
4. Agradecer por la mañana el nuevo día y ofrecer vivirlo de la mejor manera.
5. Agradecer por los alimentos.
6. Agradecer por la noche los dones recibidos a lo largo del día, y pedir ayuda para ponerlos al servicio de los demás.
7. Nunca quejarse o lamentarse por lo que no se tiene.
8. Dár las gracias y ayudar a quien nos ayuda.
9. Disfrutar de las actividades que hacemos en familia.
10. Percatarse de las necesidades que pasan otras personas y ayudar a quien nos ayudó.

El Grupo de Oración de la parroquia te invita:

El Grupo de Oración se reúne todos los Viernes a las 7 PM en el sótano de la parroquia. ¡A esperaros!
