

Workers use a mechanical lift to reach a section of stained glass window that was dislodged after a wind storm.

The section was moved off site, repaired and is being reinstalled on August 18, 2021.

