SEEK THAT WHICH IS NEW

In the Book of Revelations, we hear, "Behold, I make all things new." As Easter people we celebrate that the resurrected Jesus wants to help us to see ourselves in deeper and newer ways. Just as some people impulsively seek the newest gadgets, newest software, newest movie, newest cloths, we should spiritually be seeking the newest ways that God is working in our lives. For the resurrected Jesus is alive and well. He is constantly working to bring about our salvation and the salvation of all peoples in new and exciting ways. However, it is easy to get stuck in our crosses. We can get weighed down by low self-esteem, by addictions, by past hurts, by envy, by disappointments. The result is that we get turned inward and forget to look at the new life Jesus Christ is constantly bringing about within us and around us. This is why we should constantly be looking spiritually for the newest opportunities to experience the Lord. We must assure that we take time daily to look within ourselves and those around us to discover the new life, the new peace, the new love, the new joy that Jesus Christ presents to us daily. For life is just that "life". Life is constantly a growing and moving complex make up of people and things which can lead us closer to the Lord or farther away from the Lord. Let us not be distracted by the 5% of people that cause havoc because they are stuck in their own crosses, but focus on the 95% of people and things around us in which the Lord dwells and uses to bring about newness within each of us. It is about seeking, looking, being aware of the new beauty the Lord daily puts before us to seize and experience His new life.

Christ's Blessings,
 Fr. Jeffrey Waldrep

RETREAT OPPORTUNITY

Not Seeing Eye-to-Eye with Jesus, June 14th through 16th.

"I came into the world for judgment, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see, might become blind...Because you claim you can see, your sin remains." John 9:39.

As we look closely at the gospel stories of Jesus' encounter with people, over and over what is exposed is the contrast between what we see and what Jesus sees--they are never the same. The question is: Do I want to see what Jesus sees? Can I think of examples in my life where Jesus' way of seeing changed the way I see? Do I think Jesus sees me the way I see myself? If not, is the difference important to me? Conversion happens only when this change in Seeing occurs. Presented by Father Henry Shelton, a priest of the Jackson diocese. Since his retirement, he has conducted many seminars and retreats in Mississippi and the surrounding states. The retreat begins with 6:30pm dinner on June 14th and closes with noon lunch on Sunday, the 16th. For more information or to register, go to: www.dwellingplace.com
