“Talitha koum!”

The above words are the words of Jesus to the synagogue official, Jairus', daughter. They mean, “Little girl, I say to you, arise!” With these words spoken, the little girl, whom everyone thought was dead, comes to life. St. Mark tells us, that she “arose immediately and walked around.” Jesus speaks generative words, offering life to the dead. The words written in Scripture, are the original Aramaic, the words are presented in the middle of the Gospel, which is written in Greek, as Jesus would have said them. The beauty and the power of the words are displayed in the text. And they could have an opportunity to be displayed in our minds and hearts today as we hear these words proclaimed, and allow them to take on their full meaning in our lives. All of Jesus' miracles, show us what is to come. He brings redemption, forgiveness of sins, and the offering of this invitation to eternal life – life with Him forever. Jesus is the New Adam, the first born of creation, and what was lost in sin, is now repaired. He brings the dead to life, much like He has done with the synagogue official's daughter. From there, she has the power to get up and walk around – to live out that gift which is given to her. Today, may we hear these creative words that are spoken to us, and take heart in living them out.

Peace,
Fr. Jason Johnston

STEWARDSHIP IN ACTION

June 20, 2021 Regular $ 5,699.00 Online $ 5,132.40

Today's reading from St. Paul explains the "divine economy" of stewardship - "The relief of others ought not to impoverish you; there should be a certain equality. Your plenty at the present time should supply their need so that their surplus may in turn one day supply your need."

Thought for discussion for the ride home

Jesus says, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." What kind of fears can get in the way of that which brings us to the path of life?

WATCH

THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!

LEARN

LECTIO: PETER: EPISODE 1: PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the "rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter in this Lectio series.

LISTEN

SET ALL AFIRE

It is no stretch to say that Peter and Paul set the world afire with the Gospel message. In honor of these apostles, enjoy this one-of-a-kind presentation that includes seven segments covering some of the most important topics in the Church today. Taken from many of our most powerful talks, these segments are sure to inspire you to set all afire for Christ and His Church.

Prayer for Seminarians

Good God, you love all those whom you have planted in the garden of your Church. Watch over with special care the newest among the flowers that you have so carefully chosen and, with patience and love, planted in both hope and promise. In time, may each of them learn how to serve you with humble praise and your people with a life of selfless service.

Amen
