The Next Right Thing

By: Jeff Rice, Pastoral Associate for Liturgy & Music

Many of you probably saw Frozen II when it came out a few months ago. Even though it could never be as iconic as the first (or as annoying to those of us who had to listen to "Let it Go" a million times), I thought it was a worthy sequel that was true to the characters and especially the relationship between Anna and Elsa.

One of the songs that stood out to me is called "The Next Right Thing". Spoiler alert... Anna sings this song at the very lowest point of her life. She thinks she has lost her sister, Elsa, her friend Olaf is gone, and she's found out that her grandfather was actually a pretty bad dude who took advantage of another community in order to help his own. She is alone, disillusioned, and without hope. So she sings, "Just do the next right thing. Take a step, step again. It is all that I can to do. The next right thing. I won't look too far ahead." The next step is difficult, to do justice she has to destroy a dam that her grandfather built, but by doing so, it will destroy her village. Nevertheless Anna does the right thing, and, because it's a Disney movie, her just act magically sets the world aright, all are saved, and live happily ever after until the next installment of the franchise.

I recently heard a story of a family who adopted a 10-week old baby, their first child. Everything was going well for the first week or so, but the child began to have serious health issues that would require life-long care. Distraught, the father's first response was to suggest that the couple return the baby to the adoption agency, since they had been assured they were adopting a healthy child. The mother pushed back, arguing that God brings children into one's life in different ways, and whether the means was biological or adoption, this was their child. The father took the situation to prayer, honestly sharing with God how he felt. Through that process he discerned that God was calling him and his wife to raise the child, and, though certainly the more difficult path, they have not looked back. With God's help they did the next right thing. Life did not get magically better, their child still has all of the serious challenges, but they were strengthened by God in their role as parents, and they take it one step at a time.

For the most part, I think as human beings made in the likeness of God, down deep we don't have too much trouble identifying the next right thing. Our challenge is often finding the strength to do it. This is where we need God in our lives in two ways. First, we need to encounter God in the context of a community of believers that worships together and supports one another on each of our step-by-step journeys. For Catholics, this is what we do when we gather together to celebrate the Eucharist. We encounter the Lord together as members of his church. Second, we need to encounter God personally in daily prayer. One thing I love about being Catholic is the richness of the tradition of personal prayer and devotions. Especially led by the example of the saints, there are so many possibilities, from the most regimented, to the completely open-ended (and most of the best ones being right in between!). One can go all out and pray the liturgy of the hours like a monk, or, as Fr. Phil suggested last week, simply open the bible for a minute a day and reflect on God's word for just a moment.

The key to our communal AND individual prayer is to bring that one intention that is weighing on our heart. What is it that we really want? What do we need? Where are we stuck? What are we truly grateful for? Notice, we are not asking what do we think God wants us to ask, or what does God think we should be grateful for. Wherever we are at, that is what God wants, our true selves. When we do that, God will give us the strength and clarity to do the next right thing, which is always the path to which we are called.
Las lecturas de hoy no dejan espacio para la tibieza. Como beneficiarios de la providencia de Dios, no podemos retrasar el servicio a los demás. Cuando Isaías nos instruye a compartir nuestro pan con los hambrientos, él no menciona requisitos. Él no añade “si lo piensas puedes” o “después de que todas tus necesidades sean satisfechas”. Al contrario, el profeta simplemente comunica que lo que Dios espera de nosotros es cuidar por aquellas personas que están en necesidad. De manera similar, la llamada del Evangelio es incondicional. Como una ciudad en la cima de una montaña, la vida cristiana no se puede esconder. Los seguidores de Jesús no tienen la opción de quedarse sentados y desear vagamente que alguien más atienda a los hambrientos, a las personas en situación de calle, a la opresión y la ignorancia. Dios nos llama a servir. Si ya escuchamos la llamada, debemos responder.

CONTINUA CON LA ORACIÓN

Todos estamos de acuerdo que cuidar a los demás es importante. Absolutamente nadie quiere ver que un niño pierda peso a causa de la hambruna. Y, aun así, tenemos recelo en ofrecer tiempo, talentos o dinero a obras de caridad. ¿Qué tal si los destinatarios usan incorrectamente el dinero? ¿Qué tal si las donaciones promueven el desamparo y a largo plazo la dependencia? ¿Qué tal si mi propia situación no es muy estable? ¿Cómo puedo ayudar a los demás cuando mi vida diaria es tan difícil y el futuro tan incierto? Estas son preguntas válidas. Dios quiere que usemos nuestro intelecto cuando discernimos mejor la manera hacer obras de caridad. Pero la duda no debe guiarnos a la falta de acción. Si no sabemos cómo proceder, debemos dedicar bastante tiempo a la oración. En oración, consideramos nuestras opciones y preguntamos al Señor cómo ser sal y luz en el mundo. Así como el salmo de hoy nos lo recuerda, Dios nos llama para ser amables y misericordiosos. Creyendo firmemente que Dios siempre cuidará de nosotros, confiamos con corazones firmes y compartimos con los demás, no de vez en cuando, con culpa o tentativamente, sino “generosamente”.

A Warm Farewell to Diana deCalle

The parish staff and clergy wish Diana De Calle our Coordinator of Children’s Faith Formation in Spanish the very best as she moves on to pursue other opportunities. Diana has resigned her position effective February 9. It has been a pleasure to minister alongside Diana and we’re grateful for her dedicated service to the children and families of our parish for the past 15 years. Her love and passion for the children and families that she served have been a blessing and grace for our community. We wish her the best in what the future holds for her, as God promises each of us, “a future full of hope.” (Jer. 29:11) Please join us in wishing Diana well and in prayer for and with her.

A message from Diana:

“The past 15 years in which I have served the children, teens and families of the church have been an experience filled with growth and love, one which I will always cherish. Thank you so much to the families who have allowed me to be a part of their children’s lives. It has truly been my pleasure, and I feel I have learned as much or more from them than they have from me. You all have become a tremendously important part of my life.”

We will keep you informed about the transition as we continue to move forward with the important work of children's faith formation at St. Raphael. If you have any questions about Children's Faith Formation in Spanish during the transition, please contact Leo Moreda at: lmoreda@sainraphael.org

Un cálido adiós a Diana de Calle

El personal de la parroquia y los clérigos le desean lo mejor a Diana De Calle, nuestra Coordinadora de Formación de Fe para Niños en español, a medida que avanza para buscar otras oportunidades. Diana renunció a su cargo a partir del 9 de febrero. Ha sido un placer trabajar junto a Diana y estamos agradecidos por su servicio dedicado a los niños y las familias de nuestra parroquia durante los últimos 15 años. Su amor y pasión por los niños y las familias a las que sirvió han sido una bendición y una gracia para nuestra comunidad. Le deseamos lo mejor en lo que le depara para el futuro, como Dios nos promete a cada uno de nosotros “un futuro lleno de esperanza”. (Jer. 29:11) Por favor, únase a nosotros para desearle lo mejor a Diana a través de nuestras oraciones.

Un mensaje de Diana:

“Los últimos 15 años en los que he servido a los niños, adolescentes y familias de la iglesia han sido una experiencia llena de crecimiento y amor, una que siempre apreciaré. Muchas gracias a las familias que me han permitido ser parte de la vida de sus hijos. Realmente ha sido un placer, y siento que he aprendido tanto o más de ellos que ellos de mí. Todos ustedes se han convertido en una parte tremendamente importante de mi vida”.

Los mantendremos informados sobre la transición a medida que continuamos avanzando con el importante trabajo de formación de fe para niños en San Rafael. Si tiene alguna pregunta sobre la formación de la fe de los niños o preparación sacramental en Español durante la transición, comuníquese con Leo Moreda a: lmoreda@sainraphael.org

DO YOU ENJOY A GOOD PARTY, making folks feel at home or listening to the chatter of people making connections? Could you see yourself assisting with parish events from time to time? Our newly named Event Ministry assists behind the scenes making each occasion special. It might be the Bishop on campus, perhaps a welcome gathering for new members, the feast of St. Ignatius, a parish mission or a reception for Jesuit Alumni, etc. This ministry helps with the 'parish wide' events probably a dozen times a year. We'd like to build out our team enabling folks to serve in their interest area as their schedule allows. It's a great way to make friends while giving concrete help that's greatly appreciated. This training is primarily for more experienced altar servers. All trainees, for all positions, are expected to attend all 3 training sessions, in order to be properly prepared to serve at Mass.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION - Just four weeks ago, your baby began life. After three weeks, the heart, which is the first organ to develop, began to beat sending food and oxygen throughout his body. Now, still very tiny, many organs and systems are beginning to develop. The eyes, ears, nose, brain, spinal cord and nerves all begin to form this week. The beginning of the digestive system with esophagus and liver is also forming.

El Padre Roberto Hussey, S.J., provincial de la provincia de Maryland, dio la bienvenida a su nombramiento escribiendo lo siguiente: “Estoy agradecido por la selección del Padre General para con el Padre José O’Keefe, él será el primer provincial de la nueva Provincia del Este de los Estados Unidos.
