

EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES

Relatives of current employees of the Diocese are not eligible for employment in positions within the same department or office or where a relative supervises or works. This avoids potential problems of supervision, security, morale, or conflicts of interest exist.

All business dealings between the Diocese and persons or businesses related to Diocesan employees must be appropriate and professional. Competitive bidding and price comparison should be used, as appropriate.