

Carondelet High School is a woman-centered 800-student college-preparatory high school located in the East Bay area dedicated to excellence in the tradition of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet.

We are committed to serving all young women who seek to grow in heart, faith, courage, scholarship and leadership through educational excellence that integrates intellectual, moral, physical, psychological, social, and spiritual development.

Carondelet High School models collaboration among students, faculty, parents, alumnae, Board, and the greater community that integrates a global perspective and a call to service.

We are searching for substitute teachers to add to our pool.
