Clinician

Dr. Daniel Girardot is a cantor, director of music, voice teacher, spiritual director, author, ministry formation teacher, and devoted husband and father. Dr. Girardot has degrees in music, theology and liturgical studies, and a Doctor of Ministry from CUA. For nearly four decades he served as Director of Liturgy and Music at St. Theresa Parish in Austin, in diocesan leadership as director of music and founder of the Office of Worship, and is a cantor clinician, retreat director, and presenter at regional and national conferences. Dr. Girardot serves on several advisory boards including NPM Cantor Steering Committee and the SWLC Board of Directors. His mission is to help others to encounter Christ in the liturgy, music ministry and everyday life.

Registration is free for 5 parishioners from each NPM parish member
