Updates from Fr. Del

- Fr. Del arrived late to the meeting due to a water-main break on campus.
- Mike Moran shared the social media discussion about air conditioning in the school.
- Meetings for parish councils will be odd and even months between both parishes.
- The “Welcome Area” is being updated for gatherings after mass and during the week for parishioners and visitors.
- Last of the “Listening Sessions” concluded yesterday afternoon with about 200 attendees. These were emotional session which facilitated sharing, caring and understanding of how to move forward.

- Fr. Del expressed his believe that laity needs to be involved at every level of decision-making in the Church.
- Fr. Del asked that future Parish Councils' meetings with both parishes begin at 6:45 P.M. with prayer.

Updates from Fr. Alex

Fr. Alex informed the Council of the progress of Youth Ministry. Dave Limbacher commended Fr. Alex for his work with the Youth Ministry.

What have you heard?

Mike Moran brought up the discussion on social media about air conditioning in light of the recent heat wave. This is an issue which needs to be researched and communicated with parishioners.

Rob Cheek mentioned that email (domain) addresses for the teaching staff changed which may need to be communicated. Fr. Del said that only the school employees' addresses needed to be changed. Fr. Del will check on it and follow up.

Rob Cheek mentioned that the Council needs to invite the committee leaders to come share their committees' projects, planning and issues.
