Call to Order with St. John Fischer and St. Veronica

Updates from Fr. Del

Fr. Del began the reading of the Gospel and lead the discussion. Fr. Del shared potential future diocese declining demographic data and plans to address these challenges.

St. Veronica Parish Council readjourned to St. John XIII room.

Minutes: Approval of October Minutes was moved by Mike Moran seconded by Nathanael O'Der.

Yea: All
Nay: None

Discussion:

Dave Limbacher shared a communication concerning a petition submitted to the Vatican requesting parishioner input about specific events occurring in Cincinnati. Fr. Del shared that the content of the request was included in a discussion about the recent Parish group discussions.

Finance Committee is sponsoring discussion at the next PTO meeting, November 14th, in the Parish Center, to discuss air conditioning for the areas of the school currently not provided. This stemmed from the cancelation of school for three days in early October.

Dave Limbacher asked that Council members wear name badges to masses and Council meetings. New members will be receiving their name badges soon.

Mike Moran said that Sarah Farmer, Education Committee, will be reporting out to Parish Council in December.
