Choosing the Godparents for your Child

Choosing a godparent for your child is an important decision.

The Catholic Church has very specific requirements for persons willing to accept the responsibilities of a godparent. These requirements are found in the Church's Canon Law Numbers 872-874.

1. (Canon 874) To be a godparent a person must:

- A. Be suitable for the role and have the intention of fulfilling it.
- B. Be at least (16) sixteen years of age.
- C. Be a catholic who has been confirmed and has received Holy Communion.
 - Regularly attends Sunday Mass.
- D. Be living a life in harmony with the Catholic faith, example:
 - If married, they should be married in the Catholic Church.
 - If single, you are to be living as a single person.
- E. Cannot be the father or the mother of the child to be baptized.

2. (Canon 872) Together with the parents the role of the godparent(s) is to present the child for baptism and to help the child live a Catholic Christian life.

- Sponsors have a spiritual responsibility of nurturing the faith of their godchild and must be faithful members of God's Church

3 (Canon 873) One godparent, male or female, is sufficient; but there may be two, one male and one female.

4. (Canon 874) A baptized person who belongs to a non-Catholic church community may not be a godparent but may be a witness to the baptism only in company with a Catholic godparent.
