FAUSTINA: LOVE AND MERCY

In 1931, Jesus appeared to Faustina Kowalska as the King of Mercy. Clothed in a white robe and emanating two large rays from his side, one white and one red, He asked Faustina to paint this image of Himself along with the phrase "Jesus, I trust in You" and to spread the message of mercy around the world. He promised that anyone who venerated this image would not perish. The gripping new docudrama LOVE AND MERCY presents unknown facts and recently disclosed documents that shed new light on the vision of Faustina. FAUSTINA: LOVE AND MERCY will be showing at Cinemagic Theaters one night only December 2 at 7:00 PM. This show is expected to sell out and advance tickets are recommended. For tickets go to: cinemagicmovies.com

PARENTING IN THE AGE OF TECHNOLOGY

Our students are spending 56 hours on screens per week! YES! The latest research clearly demonstrates that children are spending more hours than a typical full-time work week on some sort of technology. While technology does have many benefits, there are many dangers to overusing it, particularly what it does to our brains' neuropathways, our social skills, our thought processes. But in this day and age, it's become increasingly more difficult to lessen the time our families spend on devices. With this in mind, we invite you to join us for an important free event on Tuesday, November 12 from 7:00 to 8:30 pm at the Montminy Center at St. Marie's Church in Manchester. Author, School Counselor, and Therapist Tom Kersting will be presenting a workshop entitled, Digitally Distracted: Parenting in the Age of Technology. Tom has seen it all and has been researching this subject for almost a decade. He knows the affects (good and bad), the struggles, the dangers, the answers to balancing device time, and sharing his findings with us.

THE HIDDEN MANNA: A THEOLOGY OF THE EUCHARIST

A recent Pew Research Survey Poll revealed that 69% of Catholics do not believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. To educate the faithful on Eucharistic teaching, we will be reading and discussing The Hidden Manna by Msgr. James T. O'Connor. Now in a second edition, accompanied by a new introduction by Fr. Kenneth Baker, a new preface from the author, new material from John Paul II, and the original foreword by Cardinal John O'Connor, this in-depth study lets the breadth and richness of the Church's Tradition speak for itself. Fr. O'Connor presents and comments on substantial excerpts from the major sources of the Church's Tradition extending all the way back to apostolic times. Focusing on the doctrine of the Real Presence, he follows the earliest witnesses through the challenge in the Middle Ages of Berengarius through the Protestant Reformation and modern disputes. Five Thursday evenings at 7 p.m. in the parish hall through November 21. Purchase the book online or contact dalexandre@outlook to order a copy.

PRAYING ON PENNACOOK STREET

Wednesday was a busy day at Planned Parenthood. When the abortionist from VT arrived, several couples and a mother and daughter were waiting. Counselors tried to speak with them but the mother said, "I'm already raising a 2-year-old granddaughter from my other daughter." She said her 19-year-old daughter hasn't been eating because she has no money. "The baby wouldn't be right and she can't take care of herself," she insisted. Counselors offered the 19-year-old all the assistance she needed to continue her pregnancy and consider adoption. She never said a word. The baby's father showed up and brought food to the teenager and her mother. He didn't stay and had some unkind words for the counselors as he left. It was late afternoon when the mother and daughter left PP and quietly drove off. THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL: Luke 20:27-38

Jesus encountered some Sadducees who did not believe in resurrection. Jesus refuted them by quoting Moses, who called the Lord the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Jesus then said. "God is not the God of the dead but of the living. All are alive for him."

KEEP KIDS SAFE - BOUNDARIES IN MINISTRY: EXPRESSING AFFECTION

We all care about children and want to communicate our affection to them. However, physical boundaries, in other words, "personal space," must be respected. Here are some appropriate ways of expressing affection towards minors when ministering to them:

Verbal praise and encouragement * Handshakes or "high-fives" * Pats on the shoulder, back, or head (when culturally appropriate) * Side or shoulder-to-shoulder hugs * Sitting beside small children * Holding hands during prayer.

For more information about child safety, visit: www.catholicnh.org/safety.
