God's Promise

A covenant is a sacred promise between two people. The Bible tells about God's covenant with Noah, which says that the world will never again be destroyed by water. Rearrange the words in the sentences below to find a simple version of this covenant. If you need help, see Genesis 9:1–17.

Fill be multiply and fertile the and Earth.

You descendants now and covenant after I your establishing you with my am.

Waters again bodily by creatures be flood a of destroyed the all shall never.

Serve a in covenant my as set bow to sign the I clouds the of.
